FURNITURE

Shopping the Paris markets is the most delicious experience and will surely make you want to redecorate completely. But it's not necessary to create a complete transformation or ship home a container full of furniture to make your Paris fantasy happen. Picking up even one small piece can be thrilling!

What appears to be damaged can often be fixed. Sometimes a little more work is necessary, but it's usually worth the price. Remember, that the place is always open that can be easily repaired with a little glue and a sander.

Some Parisian shops are the original market. Designed with care, it is an environment that offers a great experience. You can't be afraid to be inspired by the goods. These shops are not just for the sake of the market, but they are also a great place to find the best of the best.

PARIS TOUR #1

The markets run the gamut, so it's best to grab something when you see it, for vendors can sell amongst themselves, and high-end dealers shop the back of the market at the crack of dawn. But there's plenty to go around. The markets at Clignancourt may just be the world's best resources for furniture and decor.

PARIS TOUR #2

Shop and dream Paris style

If you love French design and bargain hunting, Paris is the place where your shopping fantasies come true. Author of The Paris Apartment, Claudia Strasser leads a tour through the flea markets, finding treasures that can become one-of-a-kind furnishings and accessories to reflect your individual style. A stylized map shows the lay of the land, and professional shopping tips on where to find what, back of the market trade secrets, and the ins and outs of shipping items home are included.

CLAUDIA STRASSER began her career in 1993 when she opened a boutique in New York City's East Village and filled it with French boudoir furniture and accessories. She painted and repaired flea market finds, reincarnating them into the sparkling treasures. Now she travels to Paris throughout the year, taking small groups shopping and sharing resources. She works on books and articles while designing a furniture line and doing some decorating projects. Claudia's style and business have been featured in scores of magazines. She is the author of The Paris Apartment: Romantic Décor on a Flea Market Budget (1995). The Paris Apartment boutique is now a .com, and Claudia lives in Miami.

STEWARDS to HISTORY

Alfie, Virginia

The landscape is a gift. One born off a rare landscape with some. Banded earth through the hills, some forest with waterfalls, with panoramic views offering the wide, bright light of the early fall. Had the best on the hill one could easily mistake for just another entrance to another such estate. This is not just another estate, the grounds, huge grounds, immense grounds. Working with the trees, the earth, the hills, the water, the air, the sun, the moon, and the stars, the landscape is a gift. One born off a rare landscape with some. This is a home designed by Thomas Jefferson in 1800 for James Monroe, and contains many of the early possessions of several other presidents and founders of this country. In honor, among other historic artifacts, the bed in which Father Madison slept into dream after his longing days, a painted English tin in a flower with intricate carvings, is the possession of Abigail Adams, and some marble busts in the front living room gifted by the artist. Despite the history of James Monroe, this is a great home in a great place, worth seeing to many this day or even, someday, all of that time, most of the rest of the world, and so which it is.

Private country paradises that perfectly marry the artistry of man with the beauty of nature

Garden design expert Jack Staub presents more than twenty beautiful and sumptuous private country gardens in Virginia, New York, Connecticut, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Massachusetts. From a romantic garden with cottagey plantings that pays homage to the best of English garden vernacular to a splendid Eden of Maryland countryside meets Himalayan serenity, these garden paradises stand alone on their own terms but offer us examples of what we can all achieve with a little respect for nature and bit of imagination.

New twists on traditional Southern favorites

Southern food is more than cornbread, biscuits, and fried chicken. James Farmer revamps the menu with his own twists on traditional Southern dishes (ergo, Peach and Pecan Chicken Salad, Collard Cole Slaw, Plum and Persimmon Pork Tenderloin). Stitched together with a combination of tradition and nostalgia, Farmer's dishes are updated for today's lifestyle without sacrificing the scrumptious delight that is the hallmark of Southern foods, all using what is fresh and best, gleaned from the land and garden and steeped in heritage.

SIX USES FOR A VEGGIE BURGER

Start the transition to plant-based foods with familiar options like a veggie burger. They are way more versatile than you think. Veggie burgers can be homemade or purchased. I prefer the brands Morningstar Veggie Grillers, Ina, Lightlife, and Garden of Eatin'. Be sure that the ingredient list is actually vegan with no cheese or egg whites.

1. Bacon Barbecue Cheeseburger
Serves 4

|  |                  |
|--|------------------|
| Veggie burgers                                       | 2                |
| Vegan cheese (Follow Your Heart)                     | 2 slices         |
| Hamburger buns                                       | 2 whole grain    |
| Onion  | 2 slices         |
| Vegan bacon (Fiddle Bacon or Lightlife Bacon Strips) | 2 strips, cooked |
| Barbecue sauce                                       | 1/4 cup          |

Heat burgers in a medium-hot skillet with a small spray of oil. Top each with a slice of cheese and cover until slightly melted. Warm or toast buns in a toaster oven or skillet. Assemble and add a green salad!

2. Burritos
Serves 4

|                       |                 |
|-----------------------|-----------------|
| Whole-wheat tortillas | 2 (8-inch)      |
| Veggie burgers        | 2               |
| Peas or black beans   | 1/2 cup, rinsed |
| Scallions, diced      | 1/4 cup         |
| Salsa                 | 1/2 cup         |
| Chili powder          | 1 sprinkle      |

BREAKFAST POWER

Creamy Anytime Oats
Takes 15 min. Cooks 45 min. Also Great Every Five Days. Naturally.
Serves 1

I never thought something as simple as soaking oatmeal overnight with soy milk in a cereal bowl, ready to go in the morning, would be amazing. It is!

|   |                            |
|---|----------------------------|
| Rolled oats                             | 1/2 cup                    |
| Non-dairy milk (soy, almond, etc.)      | 1/2 cup                    |
| Nuts of choice (almonds, walnuts, etc.) | 2 tablespoons, chopped     |
| Fruit or dried fruit or berries         | 2 tablespoons, or to taste |
| Soy yogurt                              |                            |

Combine oats and non-dairy milk in a small container and cover. Refrigerate overnight or 8-24 hours to soften oats. (The longer they soak, the creamier the oats will be.) Top with nuts, fruits, and soy yogurt, if desired.

Original Granola with Banana Milk

I love the idea of using the calcium and love with blueberry enclaves in a restaurant and also love the flavor so much. When traveling, this is a must to carry for the hotel room breakfast along with individual soy milk.

GRANOLA
Makes 1 cup

|   |                     |
|---|---------------------|
| Cereal flakes (a mix of oats, quinoa, barley, and millet or others) | 4 cups              |
| Sunflower seeds   | 1 cup               |
| Walnuts   | 1 1/2 cups, chopped |
| Cinnamon  | 1 1/2 teaspoons     |
| Ground ginger   | 1 1/2 teaspoons     |
| Sunflower, peanut, or vegetable oil                                 | 1/4 cup             |
| Blackstrap molasses   | 1/2 cup             |
| Water   | 1/2 cup             |
| White gum   | 1/2 cup             |
| Some seeds  | 1/4 cup             |
| Flax seeds, ground (use spice grinder, if needed)                   | 1/4 cup             |

Deceptively simple home-style Italian food

Celebrated Sun Valley restaurateur Cristina Ceccatelli Cook's third cookbook—Cristina's of Sun Valley Con Gusto!—bursts with the Tuscan attitude of appreciating the simple, enjoying the beautiful, and living life with passion and joy. Whether you want to prepare an elegant dinner or a simple sandwich, these inspired and approachable recipes will bring Cristina's signature style into your home. Start with an antipasti of Marinated Artichoke Hearts, Prosciutto Cones, and Salmon Cakes, accompanied by refreshing Limoncello Spritzers. Linger over Bavettine all Carrettierra. Then finish with Cristina's famous Candied Orange Peels dipped in Chocolate and Granita al Caffè. Like Cristina's loyal customers, you will return to Cristina's of Sun Valley Con Gusto! again and again.

The authoritative guide to China's tea world

The Great Teas of China is the authoritative guide to the extraordinary tea world of China, written by the leading master tea merchant in the United States, Roy Fong. From hand-picked white teas from Fu Ding and expertly crafted oolongs from Taiwan, to patiently aged puerb from Yunnan and everything in between, Fong offers his insights on choosing, brewing, and enjoying more than a dozen of his favorite Chinese teas.

Fong's Imperial Tea Court teahouse in San Francisco has been an inspiration to a whole generation of tea enthusiasts, who visit from all over the world to enjoy the finest selection of Chinese teas available in America. The Great Teas of China is a very personal and accessible introduction to contemporary tea connoisseurship.

The Great Teas of China includes detailed information about tea farming, local history and culture of tea-growing regions, and artisanal techniques for processing the leaves of Camellia sinensis, the flowering perennial at the heart of Chinese culture for thousands of years.

In 1993, Hong Kong native ROY FONG and his wife, Grace, created the now famous Imperial Tea Court in San Francisco, California. He is widely recognized as an authority on Chinese tea and has written about tea for Kyoto Journal and Tea Magazine, been featured in numerous publications including The New York Times, Forbes, Gourmet, Wine Spectator, and Sunset Magazine, and has appeared on the National Public Radio program "Talk of the Nation" and in the film The Meaning of Tea.

Devotional folk art of the Southwest

Wooden sculptures and relief paintings of saints such as St. Francis, the Blessed Virgin, and Apostles of Christ have for centuries been objects of devotion and worship in the Southwest Catholic culture. This centuries-old heritage is celebrated here through photographs, essay, and literary quotes that beautifully bring the devotion into focus.

Crafting saints has always been seen as a high calling. The santeros and santeras (saint makers) created santos—images of saints, Christ, the Trinity, and Holy Family—painting them on wooden panels called retablos. They carved and painted wooden sculptures called bultos. And if they built a home chapel, they carved and painted an altar screen, or altar retablo, called a reredos, that was made up of smaller retablos and sometimes adorned with bultos.

This collection of photographs, essay, and literary quotes about the art and culture invokes a feeling of reverence and let's us see through the eyes of devoted pilgrims.

MIKE ELLIS is a web designer who runs the popular website www.slanguage.com. He lives with his family in Philadelphia.

Who are people people?
Why do they win?
And how do you become one?

If you've ever heard of someone described as "a real people person" and agreed, you no doubt immediately thought, "Boy, we could use more people like that!" And you'd be right. There are truths that are universally acknowledged: a people person will smoothly, successfully engage in effective, pleasant human interactions. They are more likely to be promoted, respected, admired, complimented, and appreciated than those who simply do not know how to thrive among humans. Simply put, everyone could benefit from being a people person, but many just don't know how or don't know where to find the answers.

Supported by interviews, case studies, and sound research, People People teaches why being a people person even matters, what makes a people person, and how and where to be a people person.

Teaching you the skills to harmoniously survive
anything, anywhere, anytime

The Tao of Survival focuses on real-world, core survival skills that can save your life anytime and anyplace, in any emergency situation. It delves into fundamental concepts that most survival books don't cover, including how to deal with fear, developing mind/body skills, and fully engaging your senses to be aware of your surroundings.

Includes 20 experiments for the sink, bathtub, and backyard

Are you intrigued by the effects of smog or methane clouds, the "Harry Potter" dinosaur, the Australian bird that screeches chainsaw noises, ocean "snot," or the pink tentacles in the Korean dish where they swallow wriggling tentacles? Then strap on your hat for adventure and learn how planet Earth has been modified by the crazy chemistry of bird-brained biology and foolhardy physics of humans. The Young Scientist's Guide to Faulty Freaks of Nature is your guide to some of the strangest science ever seen, and in it you'll discover that some of the things scientists told you were "wrong" were actually right! Fictional hobbits? They are real! You'll even meet an all-new creature called a "spider-goat." So if you have a thirst for the weird, the wonderful, and the downright wacky, then this is the science book for you.

JAMES DOYLE lives and works in Belfast, Ireland (most times!). You won't find him on any social network sites and you won't be able to track him. He is an expert in remaining "invisible" to the general public and the last eyewitness account of his whereabouts placed him at a remote outpost in the Himalayan mountains where he was setting out in search of the legendary Abominable Snowman.

ANDREW BROZYNA is a book designer and illustrator living in Boulder County, Colorado. He nearly fell off a cliff while hiking, and he crashed the only two times he went mountain biking.

These boots were made for ADVENTURE!

Who doesn't yearn to travel to exotic and fantastic places and see the world in all its splendor, to discover ancient as well as modern-day cultures and peoples—all in the blink of an eye?

Scott Emerson and Howard Post give full rein to imagination as they tell the story of William, who is able to travel with his dog, Bob, any place in time and space that he desires—all because of his magic, red cowboy boots—he thinks!

Beautifully illustrated, The Magic Boots explores the feelings of wanderlust in young and old alike. It's a delightful story to read again and again.

Endangered species meet mixed modern families and mid-century modern design

The clever echidna mum feeds her baby pink milk until it is ready to eat ants. This cute slurping baby is called a puggie.

Australian author and illustrator Tai Snaithe reinterprets the daily lives of 15 Australian native animals in her signature style with vibrant watercolor illustrations, a quirky sense of humor, referencing mid-century modern design and curious scientific facts.

You'll see the perfectly coiffed Gouldian finch family having breakfast at sunrise in their Marimekko-cushioned nest and the kangaroo mum going shopping with her joeys with time for a nap! With cleverly hidden clocks and secondary animals in each scene, children are encouraged to immerse themselves in the colorful watercolors and adults will delight in humorous references to design icons and a loving depiction of the mixed modern family. Also includes scientifically accurate family facts glossary and design icons such as Featherstone chairs.
