

Ten Years of User Friendly.Org A Chronicle of Geek Pain and Adventure, 1997-2007

by J.D. "Illiad" Frazer

- Every User Friendly strip from November 1997 to November 2007 in a massive hardcover collector's edition
- The first few years of User Friendly were published in print editions, and it's been 6+ years since a new print volume has been available
- Several indexes allow readers to find strips based on story lines & characters

About the Book

For more than 10 years, User Friendly has been entertaining geeks of all stripes with its daily dose of humor, social commentary, and occasionally absurd observations about the world of technology. Loyal User Friendly fans—UFies—have been asking for a big book of User Friendly that assembles the first decade of the strip into a single volume. Manning has teamed up with the folks at UserFriendly.Org to bring readers exactly that.

Audience

- Geeks with a sense of geek humor

About the Author

J.D. "Illiad" Frazer has been making a living drawing User Friendly for more than a decade. User Friendly helped define the Web comic genre and created a loyal community with more than one million unique visitors a month.

97 Things Every Software Architect Should Know

Collective Wisdom from the Experts

edited by Richard Monson-Haefel

- Concise and to the point—each principle is followed by a brief explanation
- Allows readers to learn what top software architects think is important and provides insights into the way they approach problems
- Includes advice from more than two-dozen well-known software architects—the top people in the field

About the Book

In this unique book, today's top software architects offer 97 axioms that include principles and advice based on their years of experience in the field.

Audience

- Software architects and programmers at every level of experience

About the Author

Richard Monson-Haefel is the author of Enterprise JavaBeans and Java Message Service. He is one of the world's leading experts on enterprise computing.

December

U.S. $75.00 / Hardcover

CAN $75.00

EAN: 9781935182122

1,096 Pages, 9 x 10 1/4, Carton Qty. 4

Humor/Form/Comic Strips & Cartoons
(HUM001000)

MANNING PUBLICATIONS/O'REILLY MEDIA

Available

U.S. $34.99 / Trade Paper

CAN $34.99

EAN: 9780596522698

220 Pages, 6 x 9, Carton Qty. 46

Computers/Software Development
& Engineering/General
(COM051230)

O'REILLY MEDIA