

WINTER
2012

A person in a dark winter jacket and hat is walking away from the camera through a vast, snow-covered field. The person's shadow is cast long and dark on the snow to their right. In the background, a line of dark evergreen trees stands against a pale, overcast sky. The overall scene is serene and wintry.

Everyday life is so frantic and full of troubles that we have largely forgotten how to live a joyful existence. We try so hard to be happy that we often end up missing the most important parts of our lives. In Mindfulness, Oxford professor Mark Williams and award-winning journalist Danny Penman reveal the secrets to living a happier and less anxious, stressful, and exhausting life.

Based on the techniques of Mindfulness-Based Cognitive Therapy, the unique program developed by Williams and his colleagues, the book offers simple and straightforward forms of mindfulness meditation that can be done by anyone—and it can take just ten to twenty minutes a day for the full benefits to be revealed.

MARK WILLIAMS, PhD, is a professor of clinical psychology at the University of Oxford and a founding fellow of the Academy of Cognitive Therapy. He is the author of The Mindful Way through Depression. He lives in England.

DANNY PENMAN, PhD, is a feature and comment writer for the UK's Daily Mail. After gaining a PhD in biochemistry, he worked for The Independent and the BBC. He lives in England.

PRAISE FOR MINDFULNESS:

“Want a happier, more content life? I highly recommend the down-to-earth methods you’ll find in this book. Professor Mark Williams and Dr. Danny Penman have teamed up to give us scientifically grounded techniques we can apply in the midst of our everyday challenges and catastrophes.”

PITY THE BILLIONAIRE

THOMAS FRANK

Read by Oliver Wyman

From the bestselling author of What's the Matter with Kansas?, a wonderfully insightful and sardonic look at how the worst economy since the 1930s has brought about the revival of conservatism

Economic catastrophe usually brings social protest and demands for change—or at least it's supposed to. But when Thomas Frank set out in 2009 to look for expressions of American discontent, all he could find were loud demands that the economic system be made even harsher on the recession's victims and that society's traditional winners receive even grander prizes. The American right, which had seemed moribund after the election of 2008, was strangely reinvigorated by the arrival of hard times. The Tea Party movement demanded not that we question the failed system, but that we reaffirm our commitment to it. Republicans in Congress embarked on a bold strategy of total opposition to the liberal state. And TV phenom Glenn Beck demonstrated the commercial potential of heroic paranoia and the purest libertarian economics.

In Pity the Billionaire, Thomas Frank, the great chronicler of American paradox, examines the peculiar mechanism by which dire economic circumstances have delivered wildly unexpected political results. Using first-hand reporting, a deep knowledge of the American right, and a wicked sense of humor, he gives us the first full diagnosis of the cultural malady that has transformed collapse into profit, reconceived the founding fathers as heroes from an Ayn Rand novel, and enlisted the powerless in a fan club for the prosperous. The understanding Frank reaches is at once startling, original, and profound.

THOMAS FRANK is the author of Pity the Billionaire, The Wrecking Crew, What's the Matter with Kansas?, and One Market Under God. A former opinion columnist for The Wall Street Journal, Frank is the founding editor of The Baffler and a monthly columnist for Harper's. He lives outside Washington, D.C.

HALO: PRIMORDIUM

GREG BEAR

The sequel to the New York Times bestseller Halo: Cryptum, from the exciting new series based on the blockbuster video game

Halo has become one of the most successful science fiction franchises of all time. Its ability to captivate gamers with groundbreaking action is unquestionable. But it's also a spectacular universe, rich with untold stories that have led hundreds of thousands of Halo fans to pick up the novels. The fans are always hungry for more exposure within the Halo universe, and one of the most enigmatic and speculated upon corners within Halo is the ancient engineering race of the Forerunners. They are worshipped by the Covenant as gods. Their engineering relics pepper the galaxy yet their connection to humanity remains unanswered.

Now Hugo and Nebula Award winner and bestselling author Greg Bear takes us deep into the time of the Forerunners. This is the second book in a trilogy that will unlock many secrets of Halo's most mysterious race. Halo fans will for the first time discover just who this race is, how they harnessed technology and engineering the way they did, and what caused them to disappear completely from existence as we know it.

GREG BEAR is the author of some of Tor's bestselling titles, including Eon and The Forge of God. He has won multiple Hugo and Nebula Awards for his novels and short fiction. Bear lives in the Seattle, Washington, area with his wife, Astrid, and their two children.

PRAISE FOR HALO: CRYPTUM:

"Greg Bear is an excellent choice for writing a Halo book. . . . By far the most original and entertaining Halo tale."

—The Examiner.com

"If you're a fan of Halo's story then this book will thoroughly blow your mind."

—Geekscape.com

SISTERHOOD OF DUNE

BRIAN HERBERT AND KEVIN J. ANDERSON

Read by Scott Brick

From New York Times bestselling authors Brian Herbert and Kevin J. Anderson comes this fascinating novel exploring the beginnings of the Dune universe; the newest addition to Frank Herbert's amazing legacy

It is 83 years after the last of the thinking machines were destroyed in the Battle of Corrin, after Faykan Butler took the name of Corrino and established himself as the first Emperor of a new imperium. The great war hero Vorian Atreides has turned his back on politics and Salusa Secundus, flying off to parts unknown; because he was given a life-extension treatment by Agamemnon, he ages very slowly. Abulurd Harkonnen, convicted of cowardice during the Battle of Corrin, was sent away in disgrace to live on the gloomy planet Lankiveil, and his descendants continue to blame Vor for the downfall of their fortunes.

Raquella Berto-Anirul has formed the Bene Gesserit School on the jungle planet Rossak as the first Reverend Mother. The descendants of Aurelius Venport and Norma Cenva have built a powerful transportation company, the Venport Spacing Fleet, using mutated, spice-saturated Navigators who fly “spacefolder ships” (precursors of Heighliners).

Gilbertus Albans, the ward of the hated Erasmus, has established his own school on the bucolic planet of Lampadas where he teaches humans to become Mentats. Even so, many decades after the defeat of the thinking machines, anti-technology fervor continues to sweep across the human-settled planets, with powerful fanatical groups imposing violent purges.

BRIAN HERBERT has been nominated for both the Hugo and the Nebula Awards. In 2003, he published Dreamer of Dune, a Hugo Award-nominated biography of his father, Frank Herbert. KEVIN J. ANDERSON has been nominated for the Nebula Award, the Bram Stoker Award, and the SFX Reader's Choice Award. He set the Guinness-certified world record for the largest single-author book signing. Visit his website at kjablog.com.

JANET EVANOVICH AND DORIEN KELLY

Number one bestselling author Janet Evanovich teams up with the award-winning author Dorien Kelly to deliver a sparkling novel of romantic suspense, small-town antics, secretive sabotage, and lots and lots of beer

Read by Lorelei King

Kate Appleton needs a job. Her husband has left her, she's been fired from her position as a magazine editor, and the only place she wants to go is to her parents' summer house, The Nutshell, in Keene's Harbor, Michigan. Kate's plan is to turn The Nutshell into a Bed and Breakfast. Problem is, she needs cash, and the only job she can land is less than savory.

Matt Culhane wants Kate to spy on his brewery employees. Someone has been sabotaging his company, and Kate is just new enough in town that she can insert herself into Culhane's business and snoop around for him. If Kate finds the culprit, Matt will pay her a $20,000 bonus. Needless to say, Kate is highly motivated. But several problems present themselves. Kate despises beer. No one seems to trust her. And she is falling hard for her boss.

Can these two smoke out a saboteur, save Kate's family home, and keep a killer from closing in...all while resisting their undeniable attraction to one another?

Filled with humor, heart, and loveable characters, Love in a Nutshell is delicious fun.

JANET EVANOVICH is the #1 bestselling author of the Stephanie Plum and Between-the-Numbers novels, including Plum Spooky, Plum Lucky, Plum Lovin', and Visions of Sugar Plums. She lives in New Hampshire and Florida.

DORIEN KELLY, President of Romance Writers of America, lives in Michigan with one or more of her three children, two very spoiled West Highland White Terriers, and a handicapped coonhound named Bubba.

LOVE IN A NUTSHELL

PRAISE FOR JANET EVANOVICH:

—Bookpage

—The New York Times on Ten Big Ones

—Kirkus Reviews on Eleven on Top

—Chicago Tribune on Twelve Sharp

PRAISE FOR DORIEN KELLY:

“Warmly appealing thanks to its assured prose and deft characterizations. Dev is especially winning as a charming but conflicted romantic hero, while the quirky folks who populate Ballymuir create a funny, affectionately drawn world.”

—Publishers Weekly on Hot Nights in Ballymuir

“Kelly’s characters are fascinating, and the push/pull of their attraction/conflict works beautifully. The plot is deceptively simple; there’s a lot more at stake than what’s readily apparent.”

—Romantic Times Magazine on Below Deck

ORSON SCOTT CARD

SHADOWS IN FLIGHT

Ender's Shadow explores the stars in this all-new novel

Read by Stefan Rudnicki and cast

At the end of Shadow of the Giant, Julian Delphiki—called “Bean” at the Battle School by Ender’s Jeesh—flees to the stars with three of his children. They are the three who share the engineered genes that gave him both hyper-intelligence and a short and cruel physical life. The time dilation granted by the speed of their travel gives Earth’s scientists generations to seek a cure, but to no avail. In time, they are forgotten—a fading ansible signal speaking of events lost to Earth’s history. But the Delphikis are about to make a discovery that will let them save themselves, and perhaps all of humanity in days to come.

For there in space before them lies a derelict Formic colony ship. Aboard it, they will find both death and wonders—the life support that is failing on their own ship, room to grow, and labs in which to explore their own genetic anomaly and the mysterious disease that killed the ship’s colony.

ORSON SCOTT CARD the internationally bestselling author of Ender's Game. He lives in Greensboro, NC.

THE INQUISITOR

MARK ALLEN SMITH

A spectacularly original thriller about a professional torturer who has a strict code, a mysterious past, and a dangerous conviction that he can save the life of an innocent child

Geiger has a gift: he knows a lie the instant he hears it. And in his business—called “information retrieval” by its practitioners—that gift is invaluable, because truth is the hottest thing on the market.

Geiger’s clients count on him to extract the truth from even the most reluctant subjects. Unlike most of his competitors, Geiger rarely sheds blood, but he does use a variety of techniques—some physical, many psychological—to push his subjects to a point where pain takes a backseat to fear. Because only then will they finally stop lying.

One of Geiger’s rules is that he never works with children. So when his partner, former journalist Harry Boddicker, unwittingly brings in a client who insists that Geiger interrogate a twelve-year-old boy, Geiger responds instinctively. He rescues the boy from his captor, removes him to the safety of his New York City loft, and promises to protect him from further harm. But if Geiger and Harry cannot quickly discover why the client is so desperate to learn the boy’s secret, they themselves will become the victims of an utterly ruthless adversary.

Mesmerizing and heart-in-your-throat compelling, The Inquisitor is a completely unique thriller that introduces both an unforgettable protagonist and a major new talent.

MARK ALLEN SMITH, who lives in New York City, has worked for many years in both movies and television as a screenwriter, investigative news producer, and documentary filmmaker. This is his first novel.

THIRD GRAVE DEAD AHEAD

DARYNDA JONES

Read by Lorelei King

Third in the award-winning paranormal series that's "hilarious and heartfelt, sexy and surprising." —J.R. Ward

Paranormal private eye. Grim reaper extraordinaire. Whatever. Charley Davidson is back! And she's drinking copious amounts of caffeine to stay awake because, every time she closes her eyes, she sees him: Reyes Farrow, the part-human, part-supermodel son of Satan. Yes, she did bind with him for all eternity, but come on. How is she supposed to solve a missing persons case, deal with an ego-driven doctor, calm her curmudgeonly dad, and take on a motorcycle gang hellbent on murder when the devil's son just won't give up?

DARYNDA JONES, winner of the 2009 Golden Heart® for Best Paranormal Romance, lives in the Land of Enchantment, also known as New Mexico, with her husband of more than twenty-five years and two beautiful sons.

"Actress/Audie Award winner Lorelei King is comfortable in Charlie's skin and performs a wide variety of characters distinctly. For anyone enjoying sexy paranormal detective fiction."

—Library Journal (starred review)

"King...brings sassy fun to the role of Charley, who is spunky and sarcastic."

—Booklist (starred review)

"King's a perfect choice for portraying Charley Davidson, an Albuquerque P.I. and grim reaper responsible for leading the dead to the other side...Jones's book will leave romance, chick-lit, humor, and mystery lovers waiting for Charley's second adventure."

KRISTIN HANNAH

*The blockbuster bestselling author of Night Road and Firefly Lane delivers a masterful novel that explores the sacrifices of one American family and illuminates the true cost of honor, duty, and love*

From a distance, Michael and Joleen Zarkades seem to have it all: a solid marriage, two exciting careers, and children they adore. But after twelve years together, the couple has lost their way; they are unhappy and edging toward divorce. Then the Iraq war starts. An unexpected deployment will tear their already fragile family apart, sending one of them deep into harm's way and leaving the other at home, waiting for news. When the worst happens, each must face their darkest fear and fight for the future of their family. An intimate look at the inner landscape of a disintegrating marriage and a dramatic exploration of the price of war on a single American family, Home Front is a provocative and timely portrait of hope, honor, loss, forgiveness, and the elusive nature of love.

Deborah Feingold

KRISTIN HANNAH is the New York Times bestselling author of eighteen novels. A former lawyer turned writer, she is the mother of one son and lives with her husband in the Pacific Northwest and Hawaii.

PRAISE FOR KRISTIN HANNAH:

—Library Journal (starred review) on Night Road

“Readers will find it hard not to laugh a little and cry a little more as mother and daughters reach out to each other just in the nick of time.”

—Publishers Weekly on Winter Garden

“This terrific buddy saga about two best girlfriends who survive all sorts of escapades and catastrophes will inevitably provoke comparisons with Iris Dart’s Beaches, but the story is all Hannah’s own.”

MICHAEL PALMER

From the New York Times bestselling author of A Heartbeat Away and The Last Surgeon comes a shocking new novel at the crossroads of politics and medicine

Read by Robert Petkoff

When Dr. John Merriman goes on a shooting spree at the office, his business partner, staff, and two patients are killed in the bloodbath. Then Meacham turns the gun on himself.

The blame falls on Dr. Lou Welcome. Welcome worked with Merriman years before as a counselor after John's medical license was revoked for drug addiction. Lou knew that John was an excellent doctor and deserved to be practicing medicine and fought hard for his license to be restored. After hearing the news of the violent outburst, Lou is in shock like everyone else, but mostly he's incredulous.

And when he begins to look into it further, the terrifying evidence he finds takes him down a path to an unspeakable conspiracy that seems to lead directly to the White House and those in the highest positions of power.

MICHAEL PALMER is the author of 16 novels of medical suspense, all international bestsellers. His books have been translated into 35 languages. In addition, Palmer is an associate director of the Massachusetts Medical Society Physician Health Services, devoted to helping physicians troubled by mental illness, physical illness, behavioral issues, and chemical dependency. He lives in eastern Massachusetts.

OATH OF OFFICE

PRAISE FOR ROBERT PETKOFF'S NARRATION:

"Actor Robert Petkoff delivers a tense, exciting performance. He's especially proficient as the crafty female speaker of the House. Petkoff's virtuosity makes this thriller intense and as close to reality as one dares to think about."

—AudioFile magazine

"Robert Petkoff proves to be the perfect choice to narrate Palmer's latest medical thriller... Petkoff never misses a beat in his reading of this high-octane medical thriller, fully realizing each scene and character with ease. His energetic and skillful performance will keep listeners on the edge of their seats."

—Publishers Weekly

"Actor Robert Petkoff does an exceptional job of narrating Palmer's follow-up to The Last Surgeon (2010), perfectly capturing each character's unique accent, quirks, and personality and rendering Griffin's best friend and colleague Melvin especially well. Sure to keep listeners on the edge of their seats; highly recommended for mystery/thriller fans."

RESTLESS IN THE GRAVE

DANA STABENOW

Read by Marguerite Gavin

Aleut private eye Kate Shugak and Alaska State Trooper Liam Campbell—New York Times bestseller Dana Stabenow's two beloved characters—team up for the first time

The publication of Thought Not Dead saw Dana Stabenow's highest appearance on the New York Times bestseller list at #16 and stellar sales. Now, Stabenow continues to raise her game with a novel that sees the first ever meeting between two of Dana's beloved main characters, Kate and Liam Campbell.

In December, Alaska aviation entrepreneur Finn Grant dies in the fiery crash of his Piper Super Cub. Someone sabotaged his engine, and virtually everyone in southwestern Alaskan has motive. Liam turns to his mentor in the troopers, Niniltna post commander Sergeant Jim Chopin, to ask for help, and Jim hands the case over to private investigator Kate Shugak.

Kate flies to Newenham to go undercover as a waitress at Bill's Bar and Grill. Over beer and burgers she learns that Grant's business had expanded meteorically over the last two years, buying the closed Air Force base south of town from the federal government at bargain-basement rates and starting an FBO to run his fishing, hunting and flight-seeing business, service pilots and planes flying through the area, and most interestingly, getting into the air freight business. What kind of freight was Eagle Air moving, and where? The answers involve Kate in her most challenging case to date, leading to an expose of long-held family secrets, trust-fund plundering, weapons trafficking, treason, and murder.

DANA STABENOW, New York Times bestseller and Edgar Award winner, is the author of eighteen previous Kate Shugak novels, four Liam Campbell mysteries, three science-fiction novels, and two thrillers. She was born, raised, and lives in Alaska, where she was awarded the Governor's Award for the Humanities.

BLACK SITE: A DELTA FORCE NOVEL

DALTON FURY

From New York Times bestselling author of Kill Bin Laden and former Delta Force commander, Dalton Fury, comes the first novel in an explosive new series

After September 11, 2001, Delta Force troop commander Dalton Fury was given the secret mission to hunt down and kill the most wanted man in the world, the details of which were recounted in his extraordinary New York Times bestseller Kill Bin Laden. Now, Fury draws upon his hard-won combat experience—and his gift for true-to-life storytelling—to offer a brand-new series of thrillers that are as close to reality as listeners can get.

Meet Kolt Raynor. A Delta Force operator and one-time American hero, he is still trying to make sense of his life—and duty—after a secret mission gone bad. Three years ago, in the mountains of Pakistan, Raynor made a split-second decision to disobey orders—one that got some of his teammates killed and the rest captured. Now he's been given a second chance to do right by his country, his men, and himself. But Raynor's shot at redemption comes at a price.

A shadowy group of former colleagues has asked Raynor to return, alone, to Pakistan's badlands. His assignment seems clear: find his missing men and bring them home. What Raynor never expected was to uncover a sinister al Qaeda plot to capture a Black Site—a secret U.S. prison—and destabilize the region. Meanwhile, a ruthless, unknown enemy is on his trail...and he will stop at nothing to make sure that Raynor's mission is not accomplished.

An intense, gritty work of edge-of-your-seat suspense, Black Site is the first of what promises to be one of the most exciting fiction series of the new millennium.

DALTON FURY was the senior ranking military officer at the Battle of Tora Bora. As a Delta troop commander he led ninety-one other Western special operations commandos and support personnel and helped author the operation to hunt and kill bin Laden. He told his tale of that mission in the book, Kill Bin Laden, which went on to become a national bestseller.

TATIANA DE ROSNAY

From the New York Times bestselling author of Sarah's Key and A Secret Kept comes an absorbing new novel that tells the story of one woman's resistance during an époque that shook Paris to its very core

Paris, France: 1860s. Hundreds of houses are being razed, whole neighborhoods reduced to ashes. Commissioned by Emperor Napoleon III, the Seine prefect Baron Haussman has set into motion a series of large-scale renovations that will permanently alter the face of old Paris, molding it into a “modern city.” The reforms will erase generations of history—but in the midst of the tumult, one woman will take a stand.

Rose Bazelet is determined to fight against the destruction of her family home until the very end; as others flee, she stakes her claim in the basement of the old house on rue Childebert, ignoring the sounds of change that come closer and closer each day. Attempting to overcome the loneliness of her daily life, she begins to write letters to Armand, her beloved late husband. And as she delves into the ritual of remembering, Rose is forced to come to terms with a secret that has been buried deep in her heart for thirty years.

The House I Loved is both a poignant story of one woman's indelible strength, and an ode to Paris, where houses harbor the joys and sorrows of their inhabitants, and secrets endure in the very walls...

Arnaud Février

TATIANA DE ROSNAY is the author of ten novels, including the New York Times bestselling novel Sarah's Key, an international sensation with over 4 million copies sold in 38 countries worldwide that has now been made into a major film to be released in Summer 2011. Together with Dan Brown and Stieg Larsson, she was named one of the top three fiction writers in Europe in 2010. Tatiana lives with her husband and two children in Paris, where she is at work on her next novel.

AN AMERICAN SPY

OLEN STEINHAUER

Read by David Pittu

Milo Weaver, Olen Steinhauer's reluctant spy, is unwillingly drawn into his bosses' plans for revenge against the Chinese agent who orchestrated the deaths of thirty-three tourists

Following Olen Steinhauer's acclaimed and bestselling first two novels featuring CIA agent Milo Weaver, the novel opens to find the CIA's Department of Tourism dismantled, after a scheme set in motion by a Chinese intelligence agent named Xin Zhu resulted in the murder of thirty-three agents, supposedly to avenge the death of his son. Zhu infiltrated the Dept of Tourism, gaining intimate knowledge of its workings, then turned this CIA-trained team of assassins upon each other. Only a handful are left—including Milo Weaver.

But Milo would like to move on, regain a normal life, a life focused on his family, but his former boss, Alan Drummond, can't let it go, and when Alan uses one of Milo's compromised aliases and then disappears, Milo can't help but go in search of him. Trouble is, maybe the Chinese aren't finished toying with the tourists after all...

Olen Steinhauer, the best espionage writer in a generation, delivers a searing, international thriller that will settle once and for all who is pulling the strings and who is being played.

OLEN STEINHAUER, the New York Times bestselling author of seven novels, is a two-time Edgar award finalist and also has been shortlisted for the Anthony, Macavity, Ellis Peters Historical Dagger, Ian Fleming Steel Dagger, and Barry awards. Raised in Virginia, he lives in Budapest, Hungary.

PRAISE FOR THE NEAREST EXIT:

"A terrific second installment in Olen Steinhauer's 'Tourist' spy series."

THE DOG WHO DANCED

From the New York Times bestselling author of One Good Dog comes a novel about a woman's cross-country journey to find her lost dog, and discover herself

“My name is Justine Meade and in my forty-three years there have only been a handful of people that I have loved. No, that’s an exaggeration. Two. Two that I lost because of stupidity and selfishness. One was my son. The other was my dog.”

If there’s been a theme in Justine Meade’s life, it’s loss. Her mother, her home, even her son. The one bright spot in her loss-filled life, the partner she could always count on, was Mack, her grey and black Sheltie—that is, until she is summoned back to her childhood home after more than twenty years away.

Ed and Alice Parmalee are mourning a loss of their own. Seven years after their daughter was taken from them, they’re living separate lives together. Dancing around each other, and their unspeakable heartbreak, unable to bridge the chasm left between them.

Fiercely loyal, acutely perceptive, and guided by a herd dog’s instinct, Mack has a way of bringing out the best in his humans. Whether it’s a canine freestyle competition or just the ebb and flow of a family’s rhythms, it’s as though the little Shetland Sheepdog was born to bring people together. The Dog Who Danced is his story, one that will surely dance its way into your heart.

SUSAN WILSON is the author of bestselling novel One Good Dog, as well as five other novels. She lives on Martha’s Vineyard.

“A moving, tender, and brilliantly crafted story.” —Garth Stein,

JANE GREEN

From the New York Times bestselling author of Jemima J and The Beach House comes Jane Green's most emotional and powerful novel yet: a story that explores the complications of a woman marrying into a ready-made family, and the true meaning of motherhood

Andi has spent much of her adult life looking for the perfect man, and at thirty-seven, she's finally found him. Ethan—divorced with two kids—is a doting father and even better husband. But when she and Ethan marry, and his daughters Emily and Sophia become part of their daily lives, Andi and Ethan's life goes from one of serenity and love, to troublesome discord and drama. In Emily's eyes, Andi is the other woman; no replacement for her real mother, and most importantly, a giant obstacle to her father's love. Emily intends to do everything in her power to break her down. Worse, the tension is starting to infiltrate Andi and Ethan's marriage and suddenly Andi, who had once taken such solace in the comfort of her home, finds herself trapped in an emotional prison from which there seems to be no escape.

But when the dynamics escalate to the point where they threaten everything Andi knows about love, family, and motherhood, two people find themselves at the crossroads of logic and their hearts' desires.

Ian Warburg

JANE GREEN is the author of twelve bestselling novels, dealing with real women, real life, and all the things in-between, with her trademark wisdom, wit, and warmth. As well as writing a daily blog: www.janegreen.com, she contributes to various publications, both online and print, including Huffington Post, The Sunday Times, Wowowow, and Self. She lives in Westport, Connecticut, with her husband and their six children.

ANOTHER PIECE OF MY HEART

EARLY PRAISE FOR ANOTHER PIECE OF MY HEART:

“Jane Green surpasses herself in her latest novel, a powerful and moving story of a family on the edge of emotional wreckage, and how love truly can—when combined with strength, patience and a little bit of grace—conquer all.”

—Dani Shapiro, bestselling author of Devotion

“Jane Green writes of true love, instant families and the heartache of happily ever after with skill, grace and wisdom. You will laugh and cry as you read Andi’s story, and you’ll be inspired to pick up the phone and call your best friend to read a scene aloud. It’s that good. It’s that riveting. It’s essential reading for the modern woman looking for connection and escape.”

—Adriana Trigiani, bestselling author of Lucia, Lucia and the Valentine series

“Another Piece of my Heart is an ambitious, at times devastating, and always wise novel that conveys the endless ways in which family both destroys us and saves us, very often at the same time.”

—Jonathan Tropper, bestselling author of This is Where I Leave You

JEFFREY ARCHER

International bestselling author Jeffrey Archer returns with the second installment of his most ambitious work of epic storytelling—a multi-generational saga of fate, fortune, and redemption that began with Only Time Will Tell

Read by Roger Allam

On the heels of the international bestseller Only Time Will Tell, Jeffrey Archer picks up the sweeping story of the Clifton Chronicles....

Only days before Britain declares war on Germany, Harry Clifton, hoping to escape the consequences of long-buried family secrets recently revealed, and forced to admit that his wish to marry Emma Barrington will never be fulfilled, has joined the Merchant Navy. But his ship is sunk in the Atlantic by a German U-boat, drowning almost the entire crew. An American cruise liner, the SS Kansas Star, rescues a handful of sailors, among them Harry and the third officer, an American named Tom Bradshaw. When Bradshaw dies in the night, Harry seizes on the chance to escape his tangled past and assumes his identity.

But on landing in America, he quickly learns the risks of such a scheme, when he discovers what is awaiting Bradshaw in New York. Without any way of proving his true identity, Harry Clifton is now chained to a past that might be far worse than the one he had hoped to escape.

Paul Stuart

JEFFREY ARCHER, whose novels and short stories include Paths of Glory, A Prisoner of Birth, and Kane and Abel, has topped the bestseller lists around the world, with sales of more than 135 million copies. Only Time Will Tell, his most recent novel and the first in The Clifton Chronicles, was a New York Times bestseller. He is married with two sons, and lives in London and Cambridge.

TRUCKER GHOST STORIES

ANNIE WILDER

A collection of true on-the-road ghost stories told by the people who lived them

In a uniquely entertaining book by a rising ghost hunter star, here are uncanny true tales of haunted highways, weird encounters, and legends of the road.

It's happened to almost everyone who's ever driven down a highway at night, or in the fog, or snow. Something suddenly appears: a flash of movement, a shadow...what was it? It could be, as the true stories in this book attest, a ghost.

These are true stories from the highways and byways of America. These first-hand accounts are as varied as the storytellers themselves—some filled with terror others are straightforward retellings of truly chilling events.

Here is a chupacabra attack on the desert highway between L.A. and Las Vegas; ghost trains and soldiers; UFOs; the prom girl ghost of Alabama; a demon in Texas, and other accounts of the creepy, scary things that truckers and other drivers and passengers told to editor Annie Wilder.

With so many different stories, this collection moves beyond the usual haunted house to offer stories to entice any ghost story reader... and anyone who's ever wondered....

ANNIE WILDER wrote House of Spirits and Whispers, about her experience living in a haunted house and working with paranormal investigators. She has appeared on the Biography Channel's My Ghost Story, and has been a featured guest at paranormal conferences and hosted haunted tea parties and tours. # WHAT MONEY CAN'T BUY

MICHAEL J. SANDEL

Read by the author

A renowned political philosopher rethinks the role that markets and money should play in our society

Should we pay children to read books, or to get good grades? Should we put a price on human life, to decide how much pollution to allow? Is it ethical to pay people to test risky new drugs, or to donate their organs? What about hiring mercenaries to fight our wars; outsourcing inmates to for-profit prisons; auctioning admission to elite universities; or selling citizenship to immigrants willing to pay?

In What Money Can't Buy, Michael J. Sandel takes up one of the biggest ethical questions of our time: Isn't there something wrong with a world in which everything is up for sale? If so, how can we prevent market values from reaching into spheres of life where they don't belong? What are the moral limits of markets?

In recent decades, market values have crowded out non-market norms in almost every aspect of life—medicine, education, government, law, art, sports, even family life and personal relations. Without quite realizing it, Sandel argues, we have drifted from having a market economy to being a market society.

In Justice, an international bestseller, Sandel showed himself a master at illuminating, with clarity and verve, the hard moral questions we confront in our everyday lives. Now, in What Money Can't Buy, he provokes a debate that's been missing in our market-driven age: What is the proper role of markets in a democratic society, and how can we protect the moral and civic goods that markets do not honor and money cannot buy?

MICHAEL J. SANDEL is the Anne T. and Robert M. Bass Professor of Government at Harvard University. His work has been the subject of television series on PBS and the BBC. His most recent book is the New York Times bestseller Justice: What's the Right Thing to Do?

LISA SCOTTOLINE

From the New York Times bestselling author of Save Me, Think Twice, and Look Again comes an explosive new novel about a woman faced with the ultimate choice: should she help someone from her past at the expense of her future?

Jill Ruspoli is moving forward with her life after a devastating divorce. Her work as a pediatrician is hectic but fulfilling, she's newly engaged to a kind and loving medical researcher, and her daughter is finally happy again and doing well in middle school, in the aftermath of losing her stepfather in the divorce. But when Jill's distraught ex step-daughter Abby shows up on her doorstep with the news of her ex-husband's death from an apparent overdose, her life is thrust into turmoil once again. Abby believes her father was murdered and pleads with Jill to help her explore the circumstances of her father's death. Jill can't turn her back on Abby, even though helping her threatens to rip apart the fabric of her new family, destroy her hard-earned stability, and sacrifices her future for her past. Along the way Jill learns that motherhood transcends mere biological and legal ties and requires only the power of the human heart.

PRAISE FOR SAVE ME:

—Jodi Picoult, author of Sing You Home and House Rules

—Kirkus Reviews

“At the quick pace of a thriller, Scottoline masterfully fits every detail into a tight plot chock-full of real characters, real issues, and real thrills. A story anchored by the impenetrable power of a mother’s love, it begs the question, just how far would you go to save your child?”
