Learn to draw a variety of favorite farm animals, including a cow, a pig, a goat, and even an alpaca—step by step!

- Employs the use of basic shapes in each simple-to-follow step-by-step lesson for a quick and easy learning experience.
- Includes engaging text and fun facts to teach children about each featured drawing subject.
- Features step-by-step lessons for drawing 20 different realistic farm animals and a barn.

Jickie Torres, of Southern California, is the current editor of Cottages & Bungalows magazine. Jickie also writes extensively in the areas of art, design, and popular culture. She holds a degree in communications from California State University, Fullerton.

Robbin Cuddy began her career designing packaging for toys, games, and puzzles. She eventually became a freelance illustrator and concentrates primarily on a wide variety of books for children. She resides in Florida.

Learn to Draw Farm Animals, the first book in Walter Foster's original award-winning Learn to Draw series since 2006, teaches children to draw all of their favorite farm animals using easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions. Each lesson starts with a basic shape, such as a square, a circle, or an oval; each new drawing step then builds upon the previous step, guiding young artists through the process until they've completed an amazingly realistic finished drawing, including a full-color final. Engaging text tells a little bit about each subject, while fun farm-animal facts educate children as they draw for an enjoyable, well-rounded artistic experience.

- ➔ Showcases the work of four different artists, exposing readers to a variety of painting styles.
- ➔ Covers techniques specific to rendering landscapes, such as using atmospheric perspective and rendering trees.
- ➔ Features diverse scenery—from terrace-covered hillsides to expansive fields.

Anita Hampton is a painter and teacher who currently holds workshops at the prestigious Scottsdale Art School in Arizona.

Michael Obermeyer, holder of a BFA from California State University, Long Beach, exhibits across California and maintains his studio in Laguna Beach, CA.

Kevin Short graduated with honors from the Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, CA. His main artistic focus is painting landscapes of the two places he calls home—the desert and the beach.

Tom Swimm is a self-taught artist living in San Clemente, CA. His work is internationally collected and exhibited.

In this helpful guide, professional artists Anita Hampton, Michael Obermeyer, Kevin Short, and Tom Swimm guide readers through the process of creating charming outdoor scenes—from sketch to finished masterpiece. The book covers important aspects of landscape painting, such as composition, color schemes, and perspective, as the authors show readers how to render eight charming landscapes step by step. Full of inspiring images and invaluable tips from the pros, this modern look at a traditional genre is an essential addition to any beginning artist's library!

Capture the majesty of equine breeds with the graceful strokes of pastel.

- Contains a range of poses and breeds.
- Shows aspiring artists how to render horse features, such as eyes, hooves, and muzzles.
- Features the work of premier equine and wildlife artist Lesley Harrison.

Lesley Harrison is known for her realistic yet fresh portraits of animals in pastel and oil. Over the years, she has received a number of professional honors and awards for her technical excellence. She is also a member of the exclusive Pastel Society of America. Lesley lives in beautiful Sutter Creek, CA.

In this comprehensive and inspiring instruction book, professional artist Lesley Harrison shares her artistic insights and techniques for creating breathtakingly realistic equine artwork in pastel. The book opens with essential information on tools, materials, color theory, and fundamental pastel techniques, introducing beginners to everything they need to get started right away. Then Lesley guides readers through six easy-to-follow lessons, with helpful tips each step of the way.

Discover the secrets to creating realistic effects with the airbrush.

- Provides in-depth instruction on each stage of the airbrushing process.
- Features techniques for rendering specific textures with the airbrush, including glass, metal, and wood.
- Covers a range of approaches to airbrush—from realistic to edgy and stylized.

David R. Morton, 42, has been airbrushing for 20 years and teaching for 14. In addition to regularly teaching a high school program, David has airbrushed t-shirts in dance clubs, had his own art department in a popular retail chain, taught for General Motors Ivy Tech State College, and even been hired as a muralist. Over the years David has developed a passion for getting people to rethink the airbrush and feels that his efforts will lead to greater respect for the medium in the fine art community.

Known for its smooth gradations and seamless blends, the airbrush has become a fixture in the world of fine art. With this book, aspiring airbrush artists can learn the basics through simple demonstrations and easy-to-follow projects. Beginning with instructions on using equipment and mastering fundamental techniques, the book guides readers from initial sketches to polished works of art. Full of inspiring images and helpful tips from the pros, The Art of Airbrushing is an essential one-stop resource.

A fine artist's guide to today's most exciting developments in the world of acrylic.

- Serves as a perfect resource for artists looking to expand their acrylic skill set.
- Features products by Golden Artist Colors, Inc., a leading manufacturer of art materials.
- Contains step-by-step demonstrations so artists can learn how to make the most of each medium.

Over the past decade, manufacturers have made drastic improvements to acrylic paint that make it wonderfully appealing to the fine artist. An extensive array of acrylic mediums is available, allowing artists to lengthen the drying time of the paint, completely alter the paint's consistency, add an iridescent sheen, and much more. This book offers all the information a contemporary artist needs to be on the cutting edge of this versatile medium.

An interactive crash course on identifying and applying the most fundamental aspects of art.

- Explains in detail key terms and concepts necessary for understanding and discussing art.
- Teaches how to overcome preconceptions to achieve more effective results.
- Engages readers to help them apply this knowledge to their own original works of art.

William Catling was born in San Francisco and grew up in the Bay Area, he taught high school for ten years. He began teaching at Azusa Pacific University in 1991, where he now serves as Chair of the Art Department.

Being an artist isn't just about drawing or painting—it involves seeing and interpreting the world around you. In this book, experienced artist William Catling walks readers through the process of learning to see like an artist. Catling shows how to identify and apply the elements and principles of art, offering an in-depth study of each. From line, shape, and form to color, contrast, and proportion, Catling covers a broad scope of terms and concepts, providing readers with a solid understanding of the fundamentals of art. Exercises, questions, and prompts encourage reader participation along the way and promote an interactive journey.
