Summary: A charming and laugh-out-loud novel by Lauren Graham, beloved star of Parenthood and Gilmore Girls, about an aspiring actress trying to make it in mid-nineties New York City.

Franny Banks is a struggling actress in New York City, with just six months left of the three year deadline she gave herself to succeed. But so far, all she has to show for her efforts is a single line in an ad for ugly Christmas sweaters and a degrading waitressing job. She lives in Brooklyn with two roommates-Ja...

Summary: Celebrated travel writer Lawrence Osborne's globe-trotting odyssey of inebriation and highly literate meditations on the role that alcohol plays in cultures throughout the world

Is drinking alcohol "a sickness of the soul" as a group of young Muslim men in Bali inform Osborne, or the very reverse—a sign of civilization and sanity, as he has long believed it is? Where do different societies and their treatment of alcohol fall on the spectrum between indulgence and restraint? These quest...

Summary: The classic book on Navy SEAL training, updated with new material on training methods in the post-Bin Laden era.

NAVY SEALS ARE THE TIP OF THE SPEAR. They are able to strike without warning, anywhere, anytime. They come from under the sea, out of the air, and across the land. Their predecessors, the Navy frogmen, cleared the landing beaches during World War II, from Normandy to Okinawa. They led MacArthur's forces ashore at Inchon. In Vietnam, SEALs were the men with green faces who st...

Summary: Capitalism is not just a good idea. It is God's idea.
Pastor Chad Hovind has produced the one resource that finally sets the record straight by tracing capitalism back to its source: the inspired Word of God. Those who accuse capitalism of favoring the rich and privileged while exploiting everyone else are gaining a larger hearing. Sadly, the critics overlook the established fact that American capitalism has built a society that ensures liberty and advances prosperity and opportunity. ...
Author Bio: CHAD HOVIND is senior pastor of the rapidly growing, 2,000-member Horizon Community Church in Cincinnati, Ohio. His church attracts business leaders, entrepreneurs, professionals, students, and others who are interested in living productively in the world, but doing so in a consistently biblical manner. Hovind is creator of the Godonomics DVD/curriculum series, endorsed by the Focus on the Family Truth Project and The 9/12 Project as the most Summary: A respected Christian psychologist provides a clear path toward self-forgiveness for those stuck in a cycle of regret and self-loathing because of their past decisions and actions.

When his brother committed suicide, Everett Worthington spiraled into depression, shame, and self-condemnation. He felt indirectly responsible for his brother's death—convinced that he should have done much more to reach out when his brother was so deeply troubled. In this practical yet inspiring book, Worst...

Summary: A leading voice among young, urban evangelicals shows how Jesus' teaching on the kingdom of God can mobilize Christians to act on behalf of a better world.

When Jesus announced, "the kingdom of God is at hand," what did He mean? In this personal, passionate plea to the church, Rick McKinley grapples with the kingdom teachings at the heart of the gospel. He acknowledges the brokenness and suffering in the human experience, yet points to a simultaneous and greater beauty: God is at work ...
