BRIEF INTERVIEWS WITH HIDEOUS MEN

David Foster Wallace

Read by John Krasinski and a full cast

David Foster Wallace made an art of taking listeners into places no other writer even gets near. In his exuberantly acclaimed collection, BRIEF INTERVIEWS WITH HIDEOUS MEN, he combines hilarity and an escalating disquiet in stories that astonish, entertain, and expand our ideas of the pleasures that fiction can afford.

A brief excerpt from BRIEF INTERVIEWS WITH HIDEOUS MEN:

A Radically Condensed History
Of Postindustrial Life

When they were introduced, he made a witticism, hoping to be liked. She laughed extremely hard, hoping to be liked. Then each drove home alone, staring straight ahead, with the very same twist to their faces. The man who'd introduced them didn't much like either of them, though he acted as if he did, anxious as he was to preserve good relations at all times. One never knew, after all, now did one now did one now did one.

- BRIEF INTERVIEWS premiered at the Sundance Film Festival this year. John Krasinski, star of NBC's The Office, directs and plays a role in the film.

"Brilliant... bitingly funny...wildly imaginative."

—Salon

"Following the success of his massive, much-acclaimed novel, Wallace returns to fiction with a similarly dense, cerebral, and self-reflexive set of short works....While the inauthenticity of male/female relations is a recurrent motif, the central theme is the nature of narrative itself, as in "Octet," where the author turns self-reflexiveness on itself, creating something that might be termed meta-meta-fiction. Fans of Thomas Pynchon and Donald Barthelme will find comparable challenges here."

—Library Journal

"A supersonic delight, a full-scale harassment of the short story form.... David Foster Wallace is one badass fiction writer."

—Benjamin Weissman, LA Weekly

DAVID FOSTER WALLACE (1962-2008) is the author of Infinite Jest, The Broom of the System, and Girl With Curious Hair. His essays and stories have appeared in Harper's, The New Yorker, Playboy, Paris Review, Conjunctions, Premiere, Tennis, The Missouri Review, and The Review of Contemporary Fiction. Wallace received the Whiting Award, the Lannan Award for Fiction, the Paris Review Prize for humor, the QPB Joe Savago New Voices Award, and an O. Henry Award.

THE MURDER OF KING TUT

The Plot to Kill the Child King—A Nonfiction Thriller

James Patterson and Martin Dugard

Master of suspense James Patterson reopens the ultimate cold case—the unsolved death of King Tut—in this non-fiction thriller.

Since 1922, when Howard Carter discovered Tut's 3,000-year-old tomb, most Egyptologists have presumed that the young king died of disease, or perhaps an accident, such as a chariot fall.

But what if his fate was actually much more sinister?

Now, in THE MURDER OF KING TUT, James Patterson and Martin Dugard chronicle their epic quest to find out what happened to the boy-king. They comb through the evidence—X-rays, Carter's writings, forensic clues—and scavenge for overlooked data to piece together the details of his life and death. The result is a true crime tale of intrigue, betrayal, and usurpation that presents a compelling case that King Tut's death was anything but natural.

Serena Williams with Daniel Paisner

Read by Serena Williams

Tennis legend Serena Williams shares her extraordinary life story in this motivational memoir.

One of the biggest stars in tennis, Serena Williams has already captured every major title including the 2008 US Open Women's Singles Championship—and a world ranking of #1. Now, for the first time, she takes an empowering look at her path from a poor childhood in Compton, California, to becoming the top women's tennis player in the world. Here she candidly explores the personal challenges she faced along the way: her early days training with her father on public tennis courts; the racism she overcame; injuries that threatened to derail her career; the devastating tragedy that nearly destroyed her family—and her current roles as philanthropist, successful fashion designer, media personality, and role model. Through these remarkable stories from her life, Serena will offer motivation and inspiration to listeners everywhere.

SERENA WILLIAMS lives in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida.

DANIEL PAISNER has collaborated on seven New York Times bestsellers, including Denzel Washington's A Hand to Guide Me and Whoopi Goldberg's Book. He lives in Port Washington, New York.

NURTURESHOCK

New Thinking About Children

Po Bronson and Ashley Merryman

Read by Po Bronson

The author of the #1 New York Times bestseller What Should I Do With My Life? returns with a book that will revolutionize the way we think about parenting.

NURTURESHOCK is a groundbreaking collaboration between award-winning science journalists Po Bronson and Ashley Merryman, who demonstrate that many of society's strategies for nurturing children are in fact backfiring—because key aspects of scientific research have been overlooked. With impeccable storytelling and sharp analysis, the authors explode myths and offer new insights into the ways children learn, grow, and behave, revealing:

- why so many kids grow up being aggressive and cruel—even though they have involved and caring parents
- where intelligence is hidden in the brain, and why it matters
- why cross-racial friendships decrease in schools that are more integrated
- why the vast majority of kids lie—even though they know it's morally wrong.

A brilliant look at what truly affects children on their path to adulthood, NURTURESHOCK explores themes of intelligence, racism, civility, honesty, kindness, peer pressure, risk-taking, and family relationships, and is destined to become one of the most provocative and influential books about parenting ever written.

- Po Bronson, a solid author in audio, will bring his charisma to the reading of this audiobook, as he has with previous works.

"In a therapist's nonjudgmental tone, Po Bronson skillfully guides the listener through stories of people who have found their way to fulfilling lives or to accepting that they might never know what they want to do....These people and their stories shed light on the human psyche and how people go through the process of finding their true paths."

—AudioFile Magazine on What Should I Do With My Life?

"The integrity of Bronson's prose style as well as the incredible sweetness of those he writes about give him 24-karat credibility."

—Washington Post on Why Do I Love These People

PO BRONSON lives in San Francisco, California.

ASHLEY MERRYMAN lives in Los Angeles, California.

THE GIFT OF AN ORDINARY DAY

A Mother's Memoir

Katrina Kenison

Read by the Author

Through her own story of midlife upheaval, the author of the beloved Mitten Strings for God invites mothers to rediscover the wonder of ordinary days with their families as they approach the “letting go” that comes with raising teenagers.

THE GIFT OF AN ORDINARY DAY is an intimate memoir of a family in transition—boys becoming teenagers, careers ending and new ones opening up, an attempt to find a deeper sense of place, and a slower pace, in a small New England town. It is a story of mid-life longings and discoveries, of lessons learned in the search for home and a new sense of purpose, and the bittersweet intensity of life with teenagers—holding on, letting go. Poised on the threshold between family life as she's always known it and her older son's departure for college, Kenison is surprised to find that the times she treasures most are the ordinary, unremarkable moments of everyday life, the very moments that she once took for granted, or rushed right through without noticing at all. The relationships, hopes, and dreams that Kenison illuminates will touch women's hearts, and her words will inspire mothers everywhere as they try to make peace with the inevitable changes in store.

- This audiobook is the ideal type to be read by its author. As in Hachette Audio's well-received Mitten Strings for God (2000), Katrina will share stories simultaneously intimate and universal in her own voice.

“Kenison writes so beautifully and clearly about what is most important in family life.”

—Jane Hamilton, author of A Map of the World

KATRINA KENISON lives in New Hampshire.

THE LAST SONG

Nicholas Sparks

#1 bestselling author Nicholas Sparks pens a new novel—and major feature film role—for teen-star Miley Cyrus!

In the tradition of his beloved bestseller A Walk To Remember, Nicholas Sparks delivers a compelling family drama centered around a rebellious teenage girl's romantic awakening...and first encounter with heartbreak.

Seventeen year old Veronica "Ronnie" Miller's life was turned upside-down when her parents divorced and her father moved from New York City to Wilmington, North Carolina. Three years later, she remains angry and alienated from her parents, especially her father...until her mother decides it would be in everyone's best interest if she spent the summer in Wilmington with him. Ronnie's father, a former concert pianist and teacher, is living a quiet life in the beach town, immersed in creating a work of art that will become the centerpiece of a local church. The tale that unfolds is an unforgettable story about love in its myriad forms – first love, the love between parents and children – that demonstrates, as only a Nicholas Sparks novel can, the many ways that deeply felt relationships can break our hearts...and heal them.

HOPE FOR ANIMALS AND THEIR WORLD

How Endangered Species Are Being Rescued from the Brink

Jane Goodall with Thane Maynard and Gail Hudson

Read by the Authors

Through fascinating success stories of endangered species that have beat the odds, world-renowned scientist and bestselling author Jane Goodall delivers a message of hope for the future.

With the insatiable curiosity and conversational prose that have made her a bestselling author, Jane Goodall—along with Cincinnati Zoo Director Thane Maynard—shares fascinating survival stories about the American Crocodile, the California Condor, the Black-Footed Ferret, and more; all formerly endangered species and species once on the verge of extinction whose populations are now being regenerated. Interweaving her own first-hand experiences in the field with the compelling research of premier scientists, Goodall shines a light not only on the heroic efforts of dedicated environmentalists, but on the truly critical need to protect the habitats of these beloved species. At once a celebration of the animal kingdom and a passionate call to arms, HOPE FOR ANIMALS AND THEIR WORLD presents an uplifting, hopeful message for the future of animal-human coexistence.

THE LOVE REVOLUTION

Change Your World...Refuse to Do Nothing

Joyce Meyer

Jesus called it the Great Commandment: Love the Lord your God with all passion and love your neighbor as yourself. The Love Revolution will change listeners' lives and show how the actions of each person can change the world.

This audiobook is a hands-on primer for bringing to life the basic message that Christ brought. Meyer examines what would happen if everyone decided to refuse to live only for themselves, and instead, used their actions to display love. THE LOVE REVOLUTION is a call to action. It is a call to the listener to act with compassion and surrender his or her excuses, and to stand against injustice and commit to practicing simple acts of God's love. Meyer addresses such global issues as human trafficking, domestic violence, rape, hunger, and child prostitution as well as the hurts and challenges found in our own neighborhoods. She also provides concrete actions listeners can take to improve these situations.

A SEPARATE COUNTRY

Robert Hicks

The New York Times bestselling author of The Widow of the South returns to the Civil War in a new novel based on the remarkable life of Confederate General John Bell Hood.

Set in New Orleans in the years after the Civil War, A SEPARATE COUNTRY is based on the incredible life of John Bell Hood, arguably one of the most controversial generals of the Confederate Army—and one of its most tragic figures. Robert E. Lee promoted him to major general after the Battle of Antietam. But the Civil War would mark him forever. At Gettysburg, he lost the use of his left arm. At the Battle of Chickamauga, his right leg was amputated. Starting fresh after the war, he married Anna Marie Hennen and fathered 11 children with her, including three sets of twins. But fate had other plans. Crippled by his war wounds and defeat, ravaged by financial misfortune, Hood had one last foe to battle: Yellow Fever. A SEPARATE COUNTRY is the heartrending story of a decent and good man who struggled with his inability to admit his past failures—and the story of those who taught him to love, and to be loved, and transformed him.

Praise for Robert Hicks' The Widow of the South:

"Hicks blends the historical and the personal with a master storyteller's skill."

—San Francisco Chronicle

"Perhaps the best Civil War novel since Cold Mountain."

—Providence Journal

ROBERT HICKS lives in Tennessee.

END THE FED

Ron Paul

Ron Paul—Texas Congressman, ideologue, and #1 bestselling author—returns with a compelling argument about why our broken economy cannot be fixed without first acknowledging the 800-lb gorilla in the room: the Federal Reserve.

Over 4,000 students gathered at the University of Michigan to hear Republican Party candidate Ron Paul speak. As he began to address the topics of monetary policy and the coming depression, a chant rose from the crowd, “End the Fed! End the Fed!” As dollar bills were lit on fire and thrown into the night skies, it became clear that the real problem, one that nobody in the media was talking about, was the central bank—an unconstitutional entity and a political, economic, and moral disaster.

Most people don’t give a second thought to the Federal Reserve, but they should. In END THE FED, Ron Paul argues that the Fed is both corrupt and dangerously autonomous, inflating currency today at nearly a Weimar or Zimbabwe level. What most people don’t realize is that the Fed is actually working against their own personal interests. Ron Paul’s urgent appeal tells us how we went wrong and what we need to do fix America’s economic structure for future generations.

- Ron Paul’s previous hardcover, The Revolution, was a surprise smash in Spring 2008. It hit #1 on the New York Times bestseller list and remained on the list for 19 weeks. It also hit The Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, Los Angeles Times, USA TODAY, and Publishers Weekly bestseller lists.
- The author is the founder of CampaignForLiberty.com, an online hub where his many supporters can share their ideas, and continue the momentum he began in his 2008 bid for the presidency.
- Ron Paul has been featured on The Colbert Report, Late Show with David Letterman, The Daily Show with Jon Stewart, Real Time With Bill Maher, and on CNN, and in the New York Times and The Wall Street Journal, among other media outlets. A magnetic speaker, he appeals to Democrats, Republicans, and Independents alike and Hachette Audio hopes to have Ron Paul himself read END THE FED for our audiobook.

Praise for The Revolution:

“The real truth about Liberty. This book takes a wrecking ball to the political establishment. Senator Goldwater would have loved it—it’s The Conscience of a Conservative for the 21st century.”

—Barry M. Goldwater, Jr., former member of Congress, on The Revolution

CONGRESSMAN RON PAUL (R-TX) lives in Lake Jackson, Texas.

VOID MOON

Michael Connelly

Read by L. J. Ganser

Now available for the first time on CD!

In L.A., Cassie Black is another beautiful woman in a Porsche: except Cassie just did six years in prison and still has “outlaw juice” flowing in her veins. Now Cassie is returning to her old profession, taking down a money man in Vegas. But the perfect heist goes very wrong, and suddenly Cassie is on the run—with a near-psychotic Vegas “fixer” killing everyone who knew about the job. Between Cassie and the man hunting her are a few last secrets: like who really set up the job, why Cassie had to take the chance, and how, in the end, it might all be a matter of the moon....

“Bottom Line: Engrossing personalities inhabit a crackerjack murder mystery. For audio listeners this is a battery drainer. You won’t want to turn it off.” —Tom Alderman of the Huffington Post on Brass Verdict

MICHAEL CONNELLY is a former journalist and has won every major prize for crime fiction. He lives in Florida.

THE HISTORIAN

Elizabeth Kostova

Read by a full cast

The thrilling #1 bestseller returns—with a new look and a new one-time-only low price.

Breathtakingly suspenseful and beautifully written, THE HISTORIAN is the story of a young woman plunged into a labyrinth where the secrets of her family’s past connect to an inconceivable evil: the dark fifteenth-century reign of Vlad the Impaler and a time-defying pact that may have kept his awful work alive through the ages. The search for the truth becomes an adventure of monumental proportions, taking us from monasteries and dusty libraries to the capitals of Eastern Europe—in a feat of storytelling so rich, so hypnotic, so exciting that it has enthralled listeners around the world.

“Hypnotic....A thrill ride through history.”

—Denver Post

“Part thriller, part history, part romance....Kostova has a keen sense of storytelling and she has a marvelous tale to tell.”

—Baltimore Sun

TRANSITION

Iain M. Banks

A spectacular new novel from the national bestselling author of Matter.

A dazzling feat of the imagination, the new novel from Iain M. Banks, set in our own world and worlds within, confirms his place as a master storyteller and writer of extraordinary vision.

The Philosopher is a torturer, and proud of it. AC is a dealer who became a trader who became a hedge fund manager. Madame d'Ortolan seems to control nearly everything, while Mrs. Mulverhill the younger hopes to frustrate her. Mr. Oh is a reluctant assassin, amongst many other things. The person in the hospital bed, meanwhile, is not entirely sure who they might be, or where, or even when.

- Matter significantly raised Iain M. Banks' profile and sales level in the US. Matter was on the Locus Recommended List and on the Amazon Editor's Top Ten List in Science Fiction and Fantasy for 2008.
- A novel that will appeal equally to genre and mainstream listeners, Transition has the potential to bring Iain M. Banks even wider recognition, and to build on the outstanding success of his SF and literary works.
- Banks is a SF writer whose imagination, insight and storytelling prowess is without equal in the modern history of the genre.
- The MP3 CD format is ideal for the tech-savvy audiobook listener who plans to download the title from the CDs to computer, or then transfer the files to an MP3 player such as the Zune or iPod. Fewer CDs means lower production cost, so we can offer the Unabridged MP3 edition at a great low price: a 21-hour long audiobook for only $31.98/$39.98 (Can.)!

Praise for Matter:

"Banks writes space opera on the grand scale."

—Time

"[Banks] can summon up sense-of-wonder Big Concepts you've never seen before."

— Scifi.com

"Unexpectedly savage, emotionally powerful, and impossible to forget."

— Times (London)

IAIN M. BANKS came to public notice with his first novel, The Wasp Factory, in 1984. He is now widely acclaimed as one of the most innovative and exciting writers of his generation. He lives in Edinburgh, Scotland.

SCHOOL OF FEAR

Gitty Daneshvari

Enroll in the School of Fear—if you Dare!

Madeleine Masterson is deathly afraid of bugs, especially spiders.
 Theodore Bartholomew is petrified of dying.
 Lulu Punchalower is terrified of confined spaces.
 Garrison Feldman is frightened by deep water...

Which is why this may be the scariest summer of their lives. Worse than going to detention or even working a summer job that doesn't pay. The foursome must face their phobias as students at the exclusive and elusive School of Fear. The school is unusual, to say the least. But terrifying would be a more accurate description. The students will have six weeks to conquer their fears or to find out just how frightening failing can be.

THIS BOOK IS NOT GOOD FOR YOU

Pseudonymous Bosch

Take two adventurous outcasts, add one evil organization intent on discovering the secret of immortality, a pinch of puzzles, a dash of clues, and a deliciously evil dessert chef and what you have is a recipe for disaster!

The third book from Pseudonymous Bosch, author of the New York Times bestselling The Name of This Book is Secret, sees intrepid heroes Cass and Max-Ernest face off against the evil dessert chef and chocolatier, Señor Hugo, who seeks to create the ultimate chocolate bar at any cost.

Along the way, will chocolate-addicted narrator Pseudonymous Bosch finally be drawn out of hiding, or will the Midnight Sun just leave a bad taste in his mouth?

EXTREME DREAMS DEPEND ON TEAMS

Foreword by Doc Rivers and Patrick Lencioni

Pat Williams with Jim Denney

Read by the Author

Through dramatic stories and practical principles, Pat Williams motivates and empowers listeners to dream “impossible” dreams and shows how to build a team to make the dream reality.

Pat says though the vision of one person can change the world, no one can carry out a vision alone. Extreme dreams depend on teams, and lack of teamwork is often how big dreams go unrealized.

Using examples and anecdotes from history and contemporary people, Pat shows how the greatest world-changing events came to be as the result of the passion of one person. In each case, a team was assembled with people equipped in the various areas needed to bring the vision to pass. Pat addresses team assembly, dynamics, and pitfalls to give listeners guidance they can immediately apply to their own circumstances.

Everyone is looking for ways to be more successful in life. Pat Williams serves up an audio book packed with practical help to get listeners where they want to be.

- This audiobook includes forewords by Doc Rivers, who coached the Boston Celtics to a 2008 NBA title, and Patrick Lencioni, the #1 name in the field of business, leadership, teamwork, and organizational behavior.

“EXTREME DREAMS DEPEND ON TEAMS captures everything I taught and believed in during my career as a manager with the Reds and Tigers. This audio book will soon be a classic on team-building.”

—Sparky Anderson, MLB Hall of Fame manager

“If you care about winning, dreaming big is essential. The themes in this audio book can make anyone successful.”

—Roger Ailes, chairman and CEO, FOX News Channel

PAT WILLIAMS is senior vice president of the Orlando Magic, an NBA team he cofounded in 1987. Pat has been involved in professional sports for forty-five years and has been affiliated with NBA teams in Chicago, Atlanta, and Philadelphia, including the 1983 World Champion Philadelphia 76ers. He is one of America’s top motivational and inspirational speakers and the author of thirty-five books. Pat and his wife, Ruth, live in Winter Park, Florida. They have nineteen children, including fourteen adopted from four foreign countries, ranging in age from twenty-one through thirty-five.

GOD WILL DO THE REST

7 Keys to the Desires of Your Heart

Catherine Galasso-Vigorito

Read by the Author

The “inspirational brand personality” of QVC shares seven keys to unlocking the secrets of a life that allows God to grant us the desires of our hearts.

The Key to the Kingdom of Heaven is also our Key to Happiness on Earth.” Not only does Catherine Galasso believe this...her life is living proof of it. In GOD WILL DO THE REST, she explores seven qualities that have shaped her daily life and her life’s mission: faith, love, persistence, hope, optimism, gratitude and forgiveness.

Using stories from her own life experiences and inspiring principles from the Bible, Catherine encourages listeners to take one step at a time down the pathway toward a richer and more meaningful future—one that affirms “I will do more than survive—I will thrive!”

Catherine takes each key and through engaging examples explains the importance of that key, how to apply it, and the ways in which it will enrich listeners’ lives. She tells listeners how to seize the struggles that come with each day and to turn them into opportunities for growth, joy, and peace.

- Catherine’s weekly syndicated column, “A New You” (The Journal Register Co.) has appeared in 350 newspapers across the country for the last 13 years. She also writes a monthly column for military publications. Catherine was featured in the January 2008 issue of Guideposts magazine and one of her products was selected by USA TODAY as one of their best gifts.
- Catherine regularly appears as QVC’s “inspirational brand personality,” on the network’s “Catherine Galasso Inspiration Gifts” segments. Her faith-based products are garnering more segments devoted exclusively to her line.

CATHERINE GALASSO-VIGORITO’S nationally syndicated weekly column, “A New You”, has endeared her to readers across the U.S. for the last seven years. Known for her ability to uplift and encourage and for her warm engaging style and moving stories, Galasso-Vigorito is becoming America’s most beloved inspirational columnist. Catherine is a former Miss Connecticut; she makes her home in Connecticut with her husband and three young daughters.

THE RIDE OF A LIFETIME

Doing Business the Orange County Choppers Way

Paul Teutul, Sr. with Mark Yost

Read by Matt Reis

Tough smart business advice on what it takes to run a successful business from the star of the hit TLC show American Chopper.

Since founding Orange County Choppers in Upstate New York in 1999, Teutul has grown the business from a hobby into a 70-person-plus operation that produces and sells 150 custom bikes a year at retail prices starting at $30,000 and quickly escalating to six figures. Teutul and his team not only sell their choppers from their world headquarters in Newburgh, New York, but throughout a multicountry dealership network in the US and abroad. Paul and his sons build the best one-of-a-kind choppers in the world with unrivaled passion, creativity, and honesty.

In The Ride of a Lifetime, Teutul elucidates the business principles that have made Orange County Choppers a household name. His smart commonsense business wisdom works for businesses both big and small in any industry. Here, listeners will learn firsthand how Teutul built a uniquely successful business by working hard and demanding it from others; encouraging and embracing unfettered creativity; establishing well-defined roles for every team member and demanding they support each other; and using honest conflict and confrontation to solve problems and constantly innovate. The Ride of a Lifetime is a smart, tough-as-nails guide to business success that every entrepreneur should hear.

- Millions follow Paul Teutul's family business on TLC's popular show American Chopper.
- With bad economic times people turn to successful businesses to see how they are making it all work. Paul Teutul has built an amazing business and now shares his wisdom with listeners.

PAUL TEUTUL, SR. is the founder of Orange County Choppers, one of the world's premier builders of custom motorcycles. He formerly ran a family-owned steel fabrication shop before he began building custom bikes as a hobby, eventually founding Orange County Choppers in 1999. Since 2002, he and his business have been the subject of the hit TLC show American Chopper.

STOP THE RETIREMENT RIP-OFF

How to Avoid Hidden Fees and Keep More of Your Money

David B. Loeper

Read by Walter Dixon

Fully updated edition of the popular book that shows individuals how to avoid the pitfalls of 401(k) investing.

Saving for retirement is a difficult task, especially during these challenging economic times. Individuals who participate in their retirement plans are being charged billions in fees annually—and no one is looking out for their best interests—even though the laws say both plan sponsors and employers should be held responsible for acting in their employees' best interests.

The fact is that unless individuals are willing to stand-up and secure their financial future, they're likely to face less money in their retirement plan accounts and have to work longer to accumulate the funds they need for retirement.

In Stop the Retirement Rip-off, author David Loeper provides the necessary tools for listeners to take action and make the most of their retirement plans. It offers a road map for employees to understand the fees and costs associated with their plans; document the excesses in a presentation to management; then organize themselves to protest and, if necessary, bring the documentation to the Labor Department in a complaint. Written in a straightforward and accessible style, Stop the Retirement Rip-off provides listeners with sensible strategies for making the most of their retirement funds, and will put them back in control of their financial future.

- Loeper is well known and speaks at key financial services conferences such as Schwab Institutional, IMCA, AICAPA, etc.
- This is the second edition of a book that has sold consistently well (over 30,000 copies total according to Bookscan since its October 2007 release).

DAVID B. LOEPER is the CEO of Financeware, Inc. Prior to founding Financeware in 1999, Loeper was Managing Director of Strategic Planning for the retail brokerage division of Wheat First Union and served on the Investment Advisory Committee of the nearly $30 billion Virginia Retirement System. Loeper has been active in several industry associations including the IMCA (Investment Management Consultants Association). He has also been a featured speaker at numerous industry events and often contributes to industry publications as well as appearing on CNBC, Bloomberg TV and Yahoo Financevision.

THE SWAN THIEVES

Elizabeth Kostova

A novel of historical intrigue with a secret at its heart—from the author of the #1 New York Times bestseller The Historian.

Psychiatrist Andrew Marlowe, devoted to his profession and the painting hobby he loves, has a solitary but ordered life. When renowned painter Robert Oliver attacks a canvas in the National Gallery of Art and becomes his patient, Marlowe finds that order destroyed. Desperate to understand the secret that torments the genius, he embarks on a journey that leads him into the lives of the women closest to Oliver and a tragedy at the heart of French Impressionism.

Kostova's masterful new novel travels from American cities to the coast of Normandy, from the late 19th century to the late 20th, from young love to last love. THE SWAN THIEVES is a story of obsession, history's losses, and the power of art to preserve human hope.

NINE DRAGONS

Michael Connelly

Read by Len Cariou

In #1 New York Times bestseller Michael Connelly's electrifying new thriller, Harry Bosch must face the unknown to save his daughter's life.

Detective Harry Bosch is assigned a homicide call in south LA that takes him to Fortune Liquors, where the Chinese owner has been shot to death in an apparent robbery.

Joined by members of the department's Asian Crime Unit, Bosch relentlessly investigates the killing and soon identifies a suspect, a Los Angeles member of a Hong Kong triad. But before Bosch can close in, he gets word that his daughter Maddie, who lives in Hong Kong with her mother, is missing.

Bosch drops everything to journey across the Pacific to find his daughter. Could her disappearance and the case be connected? With the stakes of the investigation so high and so personal, Bosch is up against the clock in a new city where nothing is at it seems.

- Connelly is a consistent hit in audio. Echo Park was a 2007 Audie Award Winner, as was his 2004 Lost Light, both in collaboration with narrator Len Cariou, and Connelly spoke at BEA's 2008 Audiobook Author Tea to a sold-out crowd.
- Connelly's latest thriller, The Brass Verdict, debuted at #1 and spent six weeks on the New York Times bestseller list. The hardcover is currently in its fourth printing, with more than 525,000 copies shipped.
- Connelly's The Scarecrow, a non-Bosch thriller reprising the hero of The Poet, will be published in May 2009.
- Hachette Audio has sold over 715,000 Connelly audiobooks to date with an overall sell-thru of 79%.

"Connelly (Echo Park) delivers a masterly piece of contemporary fiction that goes beyond the average police procedural. Connelly's novels are quite simply only getting better with age; the banter of the murder investigation is smart and the action taut. This sixth narration of a Bosch mystery by Len Cariou is excellent and brings the characters to life. Highly recommended."

—Library Journal on The Overlook

"How smart and fortunate for listeners that Hachette Audio has turned to veteran Connelly reader Len Cariou for some added weight. Cariou catches all the strength and sadness behind Bosch's minimal dialogue."

—Publishers Weekly on The Overlook

MICHAEL CONNELLY, a #1 New York Times bestselling novelist and a former journalist, has won numerous crime fiction prizes. He spends his time in California and Florida.

Legend #1: Clarence Clemons and Bruce Springsteen roared toward the City in a muscled up '69 Chevy with Hideki Matsui sitting silently in the back seat. They decided to pull over for a pizza in New Haven. Their waitress, the owner's daughter, was named Rosie. After the meal, the owner refused to charge them, so Clarence left a large tip. Rosie caught up with them as they were leaving. “You left too much money,” she said. “No I didn't,” said Clarence. “Oh my God,” she said. “Thank you so much. This will go toward the car I need.” Two weeks later, when Rosie ended her shift, she found the '69 Chevy parked at the curb with a big pink bow on the roof. The card taped to the steering wheel said: “Our advice is to sell it on eBay and buy a Prius. All the best, Clarence and Bruce.”

This is just one of the Big Man's fascinating legends that have never been told—until now! BIG MAN is the must-have audiobook for anyone who has ever heard of Clarence Clemons, or Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band.

“Take me to the Big Man!”

—Sean Connery

“You want to be him but you can not. Because in all the world there is but one Clarence ‘Big Man’ Clemons.”

TRUE COMPASS

Senator Edward M. Kennedy

Read by the author, with family

For the first time, one of America's greatest leaders tells his personal story—of his legendary family, politics, and 50 years at the center of national events.

Edward M. Kennedy is widely regarded as one of the great senators in the nation's history. He is also the patriarch of America's most heralded family. The youngest of nine children born to Joseph P. Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, he came of age among siblings from whom much was expected. As a young man, he played a key role in the presidential campaign of his brother, John F. Kennedy. In 1962, he was elected to the U.S. Senate, where he learned how to become an effective legislator.

His life has been marked by tragedy and perseverance, a love for family and an abiding faith. He writes movingly of his brothers and their influence on him; his years of struggle in the wake of their deaths; his marriage to the woman who changed his life, Victoria Reggie Kennedy; his role in the major events of our time (from the civil rights movement to the election of Barack Obama); and how his recent diagnosis of a malignant brain tumor has given even greater urgency to his long crusade for improved health care for all Americans.

- Hachette Audio plans to record Senator Kennedy for an introduction to this book, and hopes to cast a close family member to read the rest of this incredible memoir.

SENATOR EDWARD M. KENNEDY lives in Hyannis Port, Massachusetts, with his wife Victoria Reggie Kennedy.

A CHANGE IN ALTITUDE

Anita Shreve

The new novel about the fragility of a young marriage from one of our greatest chroniclers of the mysteries of the heart.

Twenty-eight-year-old Geraldine travels to Kenya with her new husband Peter with the intent of staying a year. In a dizzying multicultural city, she struggles to maintain her balance as her sense of self, her marriage, and her understanding of the world are shaken to the core.

Invited on a climbing expedition to Mt. Kenya, the newlyweds are caught up in a horrific accident. In its aftermath, Geraldine must try to understand exactly what happened on that mountain and what it has done to her and to her marriage.

A major author in terms of critical acclaim and bestseller status, Anita Shreve limns the secrets at the core of our closest relationships and the ways in which lives can turn on the axis of a single catastrophic event.

- Hachette Audio has sold 150,000 copies of Shreve audiobooks to date.
- Testimony, Shreve's most recent novel, debuted at #8 (tied for #7) on the New York Times bestseller list. It is currently in its second printing and has shipped more than 220,000 copies.
- This is Shreve's first return to writing about Kenya since The Last Time They Met, one of her most popular novels, which has sold more than 950,000 copies to date.

Praise for Testimony:

"About as raw as a piece of fiction can get...It's an ambitious narrative technique, but Shreve nails it and makes you understand and even sympathize with everyone involved."

—Entertainment Weekly (A)

"Shreve seamlessly weaves the 'testimony' of some 20 characters...unveiling layers of secrets...A chilling portrait of how bad decisions in brief moments can ruin lives."

—People

"A fine example of how audio can occasionally transcend print..."

—Library Journal

ANITA SHREVE is the acclaimed author of 14 previous novels, including Testimony, The Pilot's Wife, and The Weight of Water which was a finalist for England's Orange prize. She lives in Massachusetts.

LEADERSHIP SECRETS OF ATTILA THE HUN Revised Edition

Wess Roberts, Ph.D.

The bestselling classic on leadership is now updated in a revised 20th anniversary edition, available for the first time from Hachette Audio!

Discover the leadership secrets of the warrior who centuries ago shaped an aimless band of mercenary tribal nomads into the undisputed rulers of the ancient world—and who today offers timeless lessons in win-directed, take-charge management. Based on historical research—and filled with illuminating maxims—this essential guide offers the wisdom of a man who unified thousands, led the charge, kept the peace, picked his enemies wisely, and negotiated brilliantly—all the vital management principles that lead to success. Listeners will learn: Never to underestimate the power of an enemy to rise against you on another day • Never to give a Hun a reward that holds no personal value to yourself • Never to arbitrate, for it allows a third party to determine your destiny • Never to misuse power, for such action causes friction and rebellion in the tribe and nation • And much more. This invaluable guide will help anyone manage people much more effectively.

CHEATING DEATH

Sanjay Gupta, M.D.

Read by the Author

Dr. Sanjay Gupta, bestselling author and celebrated medical journalist, returns with a fascinating exploration of the very thin line between life and death.

A 12-week-old unborn baby with a fatal heart defect. A skier who drowned for over an hour in a frozen Norwegian lake. A comatose brain surgery victim. A teenager with four rapidly expanding brain tumors. Twenty years ago all four would've had little or no chance of living. But today, with the incredible new advances in the sciences of human survival, each one of these would-be fatalities is now living a healthy, productive life. In CHEATING DEATH, Dr. Gupta chronicles the emerging science behind these medical miracles, made possible by a new breed of doctors who refuse to accept that any life is "lost." He draws on extensive case files and unprecedented access to breaking news to show listeners the latest technological developments that are changing our understanding of the human body's miraculous capabilities. Through deeply personal stories of triumph, Dr. Gupta completely turns on its head our definition of the boundaries of the beginning and end of human life.

THE LOVELY BONES MOVIE TIE-IN EDITION

Alice Sebold

Read by the Author

The phenomenal #1 bestseller is now a major motion picture and a value-priced audio with movie tie-in art.

"My name was Salmon, like the fish; first name, Susie. I was fourteen when I was murdered on December 6, 1973."

So begins the story of Susie Salmon, who is adjusting to her new home in heaven, a place that is not at all what she expected, even as she is watching life on earth continue without her—her friends trading rumors about her disappearance, her killer trying to cover his tracks, her grief-stricken family unraveling.

Out of unspeakable tragedy and loss, THE LOVELY BONES succeeds, miraculously, in building a tale filled with hope, humor, suspense, even joy.

PERMISSION SLIPS

Sherri Shepherd

Read by the Author

Known for her honesty and humor, The View co-host Sherri Shepherd shares her struggles, her triumphs, and what she's learned along the way in this hilarious and inspiring memoir.

Covering topics such as "It's Jesus or Jail," "Marriage, the Hard Way," "Children: The Gift You Can't Give Back," and "All the Things I Don't Know...And All the Things I Definitely Do," stand-up comedienne, actress, and ABC's The View co-host Sherri Shepherd comically chronicles her struggles to keep up with the many roles—professional, wife, mother, daughter, and friend—that women must play in today's world. Sherri urges women to pursue their most important dreams and to never give up, but also lets listeners know that it's okay to give themselves "permission slips" when things don't always work out the way they want them to. As her many fans know, Sherri is never hesitant to speak from the heart, and her bubbly personality shines through in this delightful autobiography.

"Charged with the task of keeping viewers interested in the post-Rosie View, Shepherd succeeded by simply being herself."

—Entertainment Weekly

"Shepherd has always used faith and wit to deal with the dramas in her life."

—People

STOP THE INVESTING RIP-OFF

How to Avoid Being a Victim and Make More Money

David B. Loeper

Read by Walter Dixon

Author David Loeper offers a complete guide to avoiding hidden charges and making more money.

In 2006, the GDP for financial services was nearly $1.1 trillion. Total U.S. financial assets stood at $44 trillion in 2007, meaning that the financial services industry as a whole is skimming 2.5% a year out of everyone's wealth.

Some of these costs are obvious, like ATM fees, insurance premiums, mutual fund expense ratios, brokerage commissions or investment advisory fees. Some are hidden or at least require some extreme effort to discover. These costs have a supreme effect on personal wealth. For mutual funds, hedge funds, and stocks there are hidden costs such as managerial fees or marketing expenses that can cost investors at least 3-6% of their earnings. These dangers to investors are real, and Loeper sheds light on the oft unseen deceit of the financial services industry.

This audiobook serves as an advocate of the consumer... to expose what insiders know about the side of the sales pitches that consumers don't, but need to hear. Stop the Investing Ripoff exposes questions every investor should ask during a financial sales pitch before they pull the trigger and buy the next book, magazine, mutual fund, or advisory service. It is based on David Loeper's nearly 25 years of experience of seeing the inner workings of the industry.

DAVID B. LOEPER is the CEO of Financeware, Inc. Prior to founding Financeware in 1999, Loeper was Managing Director of Strategic Planning for the retail brokerage division of Wheat First Union and served on the Investment Advisory Committee of the nearly $30 billion Virginia Retirement System. Loeper has been active in several industry associations including the IMCA (Investment Management Consultants Association). He has also been a featured speaker at numerous industry events and often contributes to industry publications as well as appearing on CNBC, Bloomberg TV and Yahoo Financevision.

THE SIX PIXELS OF SEPARATION

Everyone Is Connected. Connect Your Business to Everyone.

Mitch Joel

Read by the Author

Finally, the audiobook 21st century entrepreneurs have been waiting for—the inner secrets highly successful internet capitalists use to expand business and to reach global audiences.

The internet is a marketing gold mine for today's entrepreneurs—but how do you cut through all the cyber-clutter to take advantage of it? Digital marketing expert Mitch Joel takes on the fascinating world of today's marketing from a whole new perspective, unifying the concepts of Personal Branding, Digital Marketing, and Entrepreneurship. Specific case studies provide listeners with a complete set of tools and insights into how successful businesses reach their target audience online with just a few clicks of the mouse—and almost all of them for free. As Personal Brands become bigger than corporate brands, SIX PIXELS OF SEPARATION will explain the “how” and “why” certain entrepreneurs have used to master the internet and propel their product. From viral loops to social networking, this audiobook is mandatory listening for anybody who wants to expand their business.

- WORLD-RENOWNED AUTHOR: Marketing Magazine has dubbed Joel the “Rock Star of Digital Marketing.” When Google wanted to explain online marketing to the top brands in the United States (including Wal-Mart, Costco, Macy's, and Sephora), they brought Mitch Joel to the Googleplex in Mountain View, California.
- ACTIVE SPEAKER: Mitch Joel speaks approximately 70 times a year for top clients such as Starbucks, Microsoft, Kraft, Unilever, and Visa. The Greater Talent Network will be representing him for his speaking arrangements. Be sure to see and hear Mitch speak on his website www.MitchJoelSpeaks.com
- HOT TOPIC: Every business is interested in harvesting the marketing power of blogs, podcasts, and websites to grow their operations internationally. Not only will this audiobook appeal to people looking to improve their understanding of digital marketing, but Mitch Joel is also very much in demand by the media on the next wave of the internet.

I HATE PEOPLE!

Kick Loose from the Overbearing and Underhanded Jerks at Work and Get What You Want Out of Your Job

Marc Hershon and Jonathan Littman

Read by the Authors

Face it, whether your company has 10 employees or 10,000, you must grapple with people you can't stand in the office. Luckily Jonathan Littman and Marc Hershon have written I HATE PEOPLE!, a smart, counter-intuitive, and irreverent turn on the classic workplace self-help audiobook that will show you how to identify the Ten Least Wanted—the people you hate—while revealing the strategies to neutralize them. Learn to fly right by the “Stop Sign” (nay-sayer) and rise above the pronouncements of the “Know-it-None.” I HATE PEOPLE! will teach you how to carve out more time for yourself by becoming a “Soloist”—one of those bold individuals daring to work alone or collaborate with a handful of other talented people...while artfully deflecting the rest.

MARC HERSHON is a branding expert who has dreamt up names for countless hit products, including BlackBerry, Swiffer, Pentium, and Dasani. He is also a comedy veteran who has worked closely with Jerry Seinfeld, Dana Carvey, Paul Reiser, and Robin Williams.

A contributing editor for Playboy, JONATHAN LITTMAN is the coauthor of The Ten Faces of Innovation. He has also written two nonfiction books about famous computer hackers, The Watchman and The Fugitive Game.

LIVE YOUR JOY

Bonnie St. John

Read by the Author

Bonnie St. John maps out the process...the habits and behaviors...that lead to living a life filled with joy.

When Bonnie began writing LIVE YOUR JOY she soon realized that she didn't know all of the answers. She was still obsessing over her fears, wondering why she couldn't lose weight and feeling miserable about it, criticizing her daughter, etc. She was struggling with those daily "joy stealers" everybody struggles with.

Joy is something that comes from the inside out. It feels like a flowing grace, a feeling of goodness all around, a sense of well-being through good and bad. It is love, gratitude, faith and empowerment all wrapped together. Joy deepens our experiences. It opens us to seeing a more beautiful sunset, appreciating rather than fault finding, to believing in oneself.

Here are some of the things Bonnie has learned about finding joy...

- Discover the power of your own dreams and personal vision.
- Each day make the choice of joy over bitterness.
- Strengthen your self-confidence...shape yourself, don't let others shape you.
- Clarify what matters most to you.
- Allow spontaneous, surprising gifts of joy to redirect your schedule.
- Partner with God...the entire power of the universe is on our side.
- Become more helping, more healing and more accepting.

None of this is easy and Bonnie admits that she's not able to live her joy every minute of every day. But she does so more often than she used to. And, more often than she used to, she feels love from others, feels compassion in painful situations, and lives more fully and joyfully.

BONNIE ST. JOHN is a 1984 Paralympics silver medal winner in ski racing. Her education includes a degree with honors from Harvard, a Rhodes scholarship, and an M.Litt in Economics from Oxford.

Her career includes positions as an award-winning sales rep for IBM and a Clinton White House member of staff. She now is a much-in-demand speaker, who makes nearly 100 speeches each year to corporations and civic groups. Visit her on the Web at www.bonniestjohn.com.

UNTITLED

David Baldacci

What began as a fairly routine homicide investigation quickly turns into something complex, diabolical, and possibly lethal...

Mason “Mace” Perry was a firebrand cop on the D.C. police force working gang narcotics until she was kidnapped and framed for a crime. She lost everything—her job, her career, her liberty—and spent two years in prison. Now back on the outside, Mace tries to rebuild her life, and track down the ones who set her up. But even with her police chief sister on her side, she has to work in the shadows: there’s a vindictive US attorney looking for any reason to send her back behind bars. Then Roy Kingman enters her life.

Roy Kingman is a young lawyer who aided the poor until he took a high-paying job at a law firm in Washington. Mace and Roy meet after he discovers the dead body of a female partner at the firm. Their investigation into the lawyer’s death reveals dark secrets and takes unexpected turns through both the private and public world of the nation’s capital.

- “‘A story is just a story’ says Baldacci. ‘My books are typically character-driven, and a good reader really has the opportunity to engage the audience and have them invest in the characters. I’ve gotten tons of fan mail where the reaction has been just that. The characters simply come alive through a good set of pipes.’”—from the Kirkus Reviews profile

“If there is such a category as a guys’ audio, The Whole Truth fits the bill perfectly. Ron McLarty’s gruff voice enhances this fast-moving thriller as he takes the listener through barrages of deadly assaults featuring gunfire, knives, bombs and hacksaws.... The sound track is comparable to a terrific cinematic score: darkly foreboding or quietly romantic when appropriate, raising this audio to an art form and enhancing the already gripping tale.

I, ALEX CROSS

James Patterson

The best Alex Cross novel since Along Came a Spider.

Overcome by the brutal murder of his niece, Alex vows to capture the psychopath before he kills again. During his investigation, Alex discovers that she was mixed up with some very important, very dangerous people—and she's not the only one who has disappeared.

The hunt for the murderer leads Alex and his girlfriend, Detective Brianna Stone, to Washington's most infamous club—a place where every fantasy is possible, if you have the credentials to get in. Could the killer be one of their patrons, one of Washington's elite who will do anything to keep their secrets buried?

With astonishing plot twists and electrifying revelations, I, ALEX CROSS is James Patterson's most suspenseful Alex Cross novel yet.

- The most recent Cross novel, Cross Country, has over 1.25 million copies in print. It will be published in mass market in October 2009.
- The Alex Cross series is the bestselling U.S. detective series of the past decade, with more than 65 million copies sold.
- Every day, more fans discover Patterson. In 2008, his book sales were up more than 10 percent over the same period in 2007, which was his best year to date. Patterson sales have experienced double-digit growth for the past 5 years.
- Hachette Audio will release The Trial of Alex Cross in August 2009, whetting the appetite of Alex Cross fans for this new installment in the series.

Praise for Alex Cross:

"It was smart to hire two talented and very different readers for Patterson's latest blockbuster about now retired FBI psychiatrist and former ace profiler Alex Cross. Fernandez catches Alex's raspy wisdom with instant credibility."

— AudioFile Magazine on Double Cross

"If there really were human superheroes, Alex Cross would be at the head of the class."

— TimesDaily.com

"Cross is one of the best and most likeable characters in the modern thriller genre."

— San Francisco Examiner

THE IMPERIAL CRUISE

A True Story of Empire and War

James Bradley

From the #1 bestselling author of Flags of Our Fathers and Flyboys, a startling new look at the events that set the stage for WWII.

In 1905 President Teddy Roosevelt dispatched Secretary of War William Taft, his gun-toting daughter Alice, and a gaggle of congressmen on a mission to Japan, the Philippines, China, and Korea. There, they would quietly forge a series of agreements that divided up Asia. At the time, Roosevelt was bully-confident about America's future on the continent. But these secret pacts lit the fuse that would—decades later—result in a number of devastating wars: WWII, the Korean War, and the Communist Revolution in China.

One hundred years later, James Bradley retraces that epic voyage and discovers the remarkable truth about America's vast imperial past—and its world-shaking consequences.

- Flags of Our Fathers and Flyboys, were both huge hits, spending dozens of weeks on everyone's bestseller lists and selling millions of copies.
- Set in the Pacific like his previous bestselling books, THE IMPERIAL CRUISE is the perfect follow up—and, like Paris 1919 reveals the hidden roots of a war that still resonates.

Praise for Flags Of Our Fathers:

"The best battle book I ever read."

—Stephen Ambrose

"Unforgettable. One of the most instructive and moving books on war and its aftermath we are likely to see."

—New York Times

Praise for Flyboys:

"A gripping story."

—Los Angeles Times

"A tragic epic of two empires."

—Iris Chang, author of The Rape of Nanking

THE AMERICAN JOURNEY OF BARACK OBAMA

The Editors of Life Magazine

The editors of LIFE Books have produced definitive books commemorating many crucial events in American history, from the attack on Pearl Harbor to Kennedy's Camelot to 9/11. Now they have collected amazing stories and insights on President Barack Obama, which Hachette Audio will present in audiobook form. This audiobook will include post-election content not previously included in the Life hardcover.

This is a major American story: the son of a biracial couple inspires a nation and rises to become President. THE AMERICAN JOURNEY OF BARACK OBAMA includes intimate stories from Obama's childhood and adolescence and his time as editor of Harvard Law Review. You'll hear about his Chicago activist years and the excitement and fervor of the 2008 campaign, culminating with the historic Democratic National Convention. As with the bestselling LIFE book One Nation, the "thorough and thoughtful" (Wall Street Journal) account of September 11, several of America's most insightful and eloquent commentators weigh in on what Obama's moment means—as pertains to yesterday, today, and tomorrow—in exclusive essays.

Essayists include presidential historian Richard Norton Smith, National Book Award winner Charles Johnson, TIME editor-at-large Nancy Gibbs, syndicated columnist David Shribman, NPR commentator Andrei Codrescu, and former New York Times public editor Daniel Okrent, with several more prominent writers.

THE AMERICAN JOURNEY OF BARACK OBAMA will become a classic audiobook record of a landmark life.

- INCREDIBLY POPULAR AUDIOBOOK SUBJECT: Barack Obama's various titles and others written about him have been consistently topping audiobook bestseller lists for the past year.
- TRUSTED NAME: There are dozens of books being published on Obama this year, of which THE AMERICAN JOURNEY is the only branded publication, so far as we know. The LIFE name is associated with quality, authority, and depth of reporting, and has a strong association with American icons such as the Kennedys.
- HISTORICAL FIGURE: Barack Obama made history as the first African-American president. His campaign energized millions and broke records in voter registration and donations.
- Foreword by Senator Ted Kennedy.

GOSSIP GIRL: I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU

Created by Cecily von Ziegesar

Read by Cassandra Morris

Spotted back in NYC: Blair, Chuck, Nate and Serena.

Blair Waldorf, Serena Van der Woodsen, Nate Archibald, Dan Humphrey, and Vanessa Abrams have graduated high school and gone off to live their lives. Now, it's their first holiday back in the city, four months after the original book series left off. New York is a magical place at Christmas, and the holidays are always filled with reunions, makeups, and shakeups.

Over the next four years, we see them come home for the holidays. We track them through their nearing-adult lives, as they go to college—or not—make new friends, meet the new loves of their lives, and figure out what it means to grow up. A lot can change over four years...but in the end, some things never do.

- The #1 bestselling Gossip Girl series has sold more than 5.3 million net copies!
- With the popularity of the hit TV. show, the Gossip Girl brand is now a household name with broad crossover appeal.
- Available as a digital download only, a format ideal to capitalize on Gossip Girl's young, internet-savvy fan base.

CECILY VON ZIEGESAR has always lived in New York City.

NUBS

The True Story of a Mutt, a Marine & a Miracle

Major Brian Dennis, Mary Nethery, Kirby Larson

The touching true story of a devoted dog and his miraculous journey in the name of friendship.

This audiobook documents the incredible bond between Major Brian Dennis and Nubs, the German Shepherd-Border Collie mutt he met while patrolling the Iraqi border. The two formed a fast friendship, which Dennis assumed would end when his team relocated a full 70 miles away. But Nubs was not willing to be left behind; he trekked solo through below-freezing desert temperatures to find his favorite marine.

Astounded by the loyalty Nubs had shown him, Dennis raised enough money to transport him to San Diego, where they now share a home.

Nubs and Dennis will remind listeners that friendship has the power to cross deserts, continents, and even species.

BRIAN DENNIS is a major in the Marines. He and Nubs live in San Diego.

KIRBY LARSON is the acclaimed author of the 2007 Newbery Honor book, Hattie Big Sky. She lives in Kenmore, Washington.

MARY NETHERY is the author of a variety of picture books. She lives in Eureka, California.

YOUR NEXT MOVE

Michael Watkins

Read by Sean Pratt

Bestselling author and leadership-transition guru teaches listeners how to survive and thrive during major career transitions.

After three months in a new job, are you up to speed? Will you sink...or swim? Transitions into new roles are the crucibles in which leaders get their toughest tests, and they're the defining factor in professional careers today.

Yet far too often, leaders fail to transition effectively into new roles. The resulting costs are high, for your career and the organization.

In Your Next Move, leadership-transition guru Michael Watkins tells listeners how they can survive and thrive in all the major transitions they will face during their careers, including promotion, on-boarding into a new organization, and making an international move. With real-life examples and case studies, he illustrates the defining hurdles associated with each type of transition.

He then provides the insights, strategies, and tools—including relationship reengineering, business systems analysis, and “organizational immunology”—they’ll need to accelerate through these crucial turning points and continue moving up in their careers.

The necessary complement to the author’s bestselling guide The First 90 Days, Your Next Move offers the keen observations, tried-and-true management wisdom, and practical good sense Watkins is renowned for. It’s a vital resource for any manager or executive seeking to maintain career momentum.

- Watkins is a leadership transitions guru. He is the cofounder of Genesis Advisers, a firm specializing in transition acceleration programs and coaching.

WORLD WIDE RAVE

Creating Triggers that Get Millions of People to Spread Your Ideas and Share Your Stories

David Meerman Scott

Read by Walter Dixon

Bestselling author, David Meerman Scott, explains how to produce engaging online content that people will WANT to share, triggering a “world wide rave” for your product or service.

What do Blendtec, The Wizarding World of Harry Potter and Barack Obama have in common? They all created huge amounts of buzz and generated millions of dollars in sales and campaign contributions by using the principles found in World Wide Rave: Creating Triggers that Get Millions of People to Spread Your Ideas and Share Your Stories.

Millions of people try to create something on the Web that will catch on and become a hit on YouTube, blogs, Facebook, and other online media. But you can't generate buzz without something to buzz about. This audiobook teaches the art and science of creating engaging content and teaches listeners exactly how to create “world wide rave”.

- David is frequently quoted online, in print, and on radio and TV. He has been quoted or appeared in the Associated Press, Sydney Morning Herald, The Globe & Mail (Toronto), The Age (Melbourne), De TIJD (Brussels), Marketing Sherpa (Inducted into the Viral Marketing Hall of Fame, 2006), Seth Godin's Flipping the Funnel, San Francisco's NBC, and more.
- David writes 30 to 40 articles per year for print and online publications. He is a contributing editor for Econtent Magazine, where his column, After Thought, explores Web marketing issues (16,000 print circ; 50,000 online). He is a contributor to Product Marketing Magazine (30,000 print circ; 30,000 online). His articles frequently appear in MarketingProfs (circ 100,000) and RainToday.com (circ 30,000), CMOMagazine.com, BusinessWeek, Competitive Intelligence Magazine, and North American Review.
- David's highly trafficked blog explores using Web content to drive action: www.WebInkNow.com. The blog generates many links, comments and trackbacks from other bloggers. It is a top 100 marketing blog according to AdAge Magazine. He also sends an email newsletter to clients and prospects six times per year (circulation: 1,000).

INSIDE RUPERT'S BRAIN

How the World's Most Powerful Media Mogul Really Thinks
Paul R. La Monica

Read by Erik Synnestvedt

A look inside the thinking of the world's most powerful media mogul.

Rupert Murdoch, the controversial chairman and CEO of News Corp., is the subject of endless gossip, speculation, and criticism. But what really drives his bold (and usually successful) gambles?

Based on comments from News Corp. executives and competitors and interviews with Wall Street analysts, investors, and other media experts, this audiobook explores some of the most fascinating questions about Murdoch. For instance:

- How did he grow a small Australian newspaper company into a global media empire?
 - Why did he challenge the TV establishment with the Fox Network and Fox News Channel—for profits or for deeper reasons?
 - Did his obsession with The Wall Street Journal lead him to overpay for Dow Jones?
 - How has he dealt with detractors and enemies, including Ted Turner and John Malone?
 - Was he smart to acquire MySpace to launch his Internet strategy?
 - Why does he still work so hard at age seventy-seven with a net worth of $8.8 billion and nothing to prove?
- Rupert Murdoch is the subject of countless speculation. In these difficult economic times, there is a great desire to learn the lessons good and bad from larger than life public figures.

CLEAVING

A Story of Marriage, Meat, and Obsession

Julie Powell

Read by the Author

Julie Powell, author of the beloved New York Times bestseller Julie & Julia, takes another obsessive journey to save her soul.

Julie Powell thought cooking her way through Julia Child's Mastering the Art of French Cooking was the craziest thing she'd ever do—until she embarked on the voyage recounted in her new memoir, CLEAVING.

Her marriage challenged by an insane, irresistible love affair, Julie decides to leave town and immerse herself in a new obsession: butchery. She finds her way to Fleischer's, a butcher shop where she buries herself in the details of food. She learns how to break down a side of beef and French a rack of ribs—tough, physical work that only sometimes distracts her from thoughts of afternoon trysts.

The camaraderie at Fleischer's leads Julie to search out fellow butchers around the world—from South America to Europe to Africa. At the end of her odyssey, she has learned a new art and perhaps even mastered her unruly heart.

- Author-read Julie & Julia won an AudioFile Earphones award. We are sure to grow her fan base in audio even further by offering author-read CLEAVING in an unabridged format.
- BESTSELLING AUTHOR: Julie & Julia hit the New York Times extended list and was a San Francisco Chronicle, Publishers Weekly, and Book Sense bestseller.
- BLOCKBUSTER MOVIE: Julie & Julia, directed by Nora Ephron and starring Meryl Streep as Julia Child and Amy Adams as Julie Powell is set for release in 2009. Mass market and audio move tie-in editions will coincide with release.
- PROMOTABLE PERSONALITY: The charismatic Powell appeared on "Good Morning America," cooked Julia Child's famous boeuf bourguignon with Martha Stewart on "Martha."
- BLOGGING BUZZ: Julie is back to writing her blog at <http://juliepowell.blogspot.com>, which generated a huge fan base for Julie & Julia.

"Powell is not a domestic goddess; she's emphatically, unembarrassedly a domestic mortal. But she is also a genuinely gifted thinker and writer about food."

—Time

After a misspent youth involving loads of dead-end jobs and several questionable decisions, JULIE POWELL, author of Julie & Julia: My Year of Cooking Dangerously, has found her calling as a writer-cum-butcher. She lives in Long Island City, Queens, when she isn't in Kingston, NY, cutting up animals.

WITCH & WIZARD

James Patterson with Gabrielle Charbonnet

Torn from their family and slammed into prison, a sister and brother must master their powers to save the world they love.

The world is changing—the government has seized control of every aspect of society, and now, kids are disappearing. For 15-year-old Wisty and her older brother Whit, life turns upside down when they are hauled out of bed one night, separated from their parents, and thrown into a secret compound for no reason they can comprehend. The new government is clearly trying to suppress Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Being a Normal Teenager.

Imprisoned together and condemned to death, Wisty and Whit begin exhibiting strange abilities and powers they never dreamed of. Maybe there is a reason they were singled out. Can this newly minted witch and wizard master their skills in time to save themselves, their parents—and maybe the world?

- The PageTurners are a huge success! Both The Final Warning and The Dangerous Days of Daniel X debuted at #1 on the New York Times bestseller list.
- Patterson is the only author to occupy both the #1 slot on the New York Times Adult Fiction and Children's Chapter Book bestsellers lists!
- In the spirit of the most enduring hit movies and books, Patterson has written this story for listeners from 10 to 110. Special care has been taken with the language and content of WITCH & WIZARD, which Hachette Audio plans to celebrity cast for added young audience appeal.

"James Patterson is really getting this teen science-fiction genre down. The author of the MAXIMUM RIDE series, about bird children, is at it again with The Dangerous Days of Daniel X. They could not have done better than Milo Ventimiglia as the narrator of this short novel about an alien boy, Daniel, who lives on Earth and hunts evil extraterrestrials who want to enslave the population and drain its resources. Clearly, kids will love this amazing alien gifted with mysterious powers."

—AudioFile Magazine on The Dangerous Days of Daniel X.

JAMES PATTERSON is one of the world's most popular and successful authors and lives in Florida. GABRIELLE CHARBONNET has coauthored Sundays at Tiffany's with James Patterson. She lives in North Carolina.

HOLLYWOOD MOON

Joseph Wambaugh

Joseph Wambaugh, “master of the modern police novel” (Michael Connelly), is back with another gripping novel about the LAPD.

There’s a saying at Hollywood Station that the full moon brings out the beast—rather than the best—in its citizens. One moonlit night, LAPD veteran Dana Vaughn and “Hollywood” Nate Weiss get a call about a young man who’s been attacking women. Meanwhile, two surfer cops known as Flotsam and Jetsam keep bumping into an odd, suspicious duo—a smooth-talking player in dreads and a crazy-eyed, tattooed biker. No one suspects that all three dubious characters might be involved in something bigger, more high-tech, and deadly. The cops have stumbled upon a complex web of crime where even the criminals can’t be sure who’s conning whom.

Wambaugh masterfully brings together his distinctive mordant humor and gripping suspense in HOLLYWOOD MOON, his most thrilling ride yet through the lunatic world of LA cops.

- Both Hollywood Station and Hollywood Crows were #1 on the Los Angeles Times list and New York Times.
- Hollywood Crows won the Southern California Independent Booksellers Association’s 2008 T. Jefferson Parker Award for best mystery of the year. Stephen King picked it as one of the 10 best books of 2008.
- Hollywood Crows and Hollywood Station were both AudioFile Earphones winners, and Hollywood Station was a 2008 Audies Finalist.

Praise for Hollywood Crows:

“This gritty LAPD thriller has it all—cops, cross-dressers, scofflaws and strip joints, and Rummel’s energetic and believable performance brings it all together.”

—AudioFile Magazine

“Wambaugh’s storytelling skills have never been better than in Hollywood Crows...Actor Christian Rummel does justice to the novel, giving each character a distinctive voice and attitude...Rummel’s performance ranks with another favorite reader of audiobooks, Scott Brick.”

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

The Essential Box Set

Edited by Clayborne Carson, Kris Shepard, and Peter Holloran

This definitive box set includes all the landmark speeches of the great orator and American leader Martin Luther King, Jr., from his inspirational "I Have a Dream" to his fiery "Give Us the Ballot." Comprised of recordings previously included in A Call to Conscience and A Knock at Midnight, THE ESSENTIAL BOX SET is a must-have for any home, library, or school collection.

"It makes listeners feel like they are sitting in the back of a Baptist church hearing history being made. Each speech is introduced by an essay by another prominent civil rights activist. Some, such as the one by the Dalai Lama, are personal reminiscences, as well as inspirational charges in their own right. Others are meant to set the scene for King's speech and discuss its impact."

IT'S NOT ABOUT THE MONEY

Bob Proctor

Read by the Author

...unleash your unlimited potential, and apply the secrets to success that only an elite few truly understand.

The valuable—and simple—lesson contained in this audiobook is that the best way to attract prosperity is to abandon the pursuit of wealth and allow it to flow toward oneself.

The ancient laws of attraction are explained in plain language and applied in an economic framework that anyone can easily follow. Follow the path to prosperity, which is offered along with guidance for achieving harmony in both professional and personal spheres. Proctor offers strategies to overcome destructive thinking patterns and to sustain the flow of wealth while channeling it constructively.

Profiles of individuals who pursued their passion rather than profit, and subsequently reaped immense rewards, will inspire all who seek to transform their lives.

Proctor is a well known motivational consultant, advising corporations and business leaders for over 40 years. He is considered one of the world's greatest authorities on attracting wealth and lectures throughout the world on overcoming people's fears of money while teaching them how to attract it.

- There has never been a better time to teach people how to overcome destructive thinking patterns and be open to letting wealth flow towards them.

BOB PROCTOR is a motivational speaker and consultant. He is the author of You Were Born Rich and Wealth from the Inside Out. He lives in Toronto.

THE THREE LAWS OF PERFORMANCE

Rewriting the Future of Your Organization and Your Life

Steve Zaffron and Dave Logan

Read by Walter Dixon

A pioneering business leader with a massive network and a respected author/professor present a proven strategy for revolutionizing change and performance.

In our work lives when something isn't working, we struggle with what part of the problem to tackle first. Do we start with cost reduction? What about morale? Or should we go for process improvements first? We pick the problem to work on, and depending on whether our plan makes sense, one of two things happens. First, we fail—and then we add “frustration” to our list of problems. Second, we succeed, and then some new problem pops out to replace the old. We cut 10% out of our budget, and our star performers leave in frustration because we sliced what they saw as a critical program. It's as though the system we're working on is an old inner tube. The moment we patch one hole and add pressure, another spot tears open.

The point is that it's possible to change everything at once. Seem far fetched? Zaffron and Logan make a compelling argument that executives spend their time and money adjusting the systems in which people operate rather than targeting people's performance directly. When the three laws in this audiobook are applied, performance transforms to a level far beyond what most people think is possible. These laws are:

1. How people perform correlates to how situations occur to them.
2. How a situation occurs arises from language.
3. Future-based language transforms how situations occur to people.

STEVE ZAFFRON is the CEO of Vanto Group, which has consulted with 300+ organizations in twenty countries including Lockheed Martin, Apple, Morgan Stanley, Johnson & Johnson, Reebok, NASA, Northrop Grumman, Polus Group Japan, and the US Defense Dept. Zaffron has personally consulted many top executives and led seminars for over 100,000 people, as well as guest lecturing at Harvard Business School, University of Rochester, Ohio State, and USC. Steve holds a master's degree from the University of Chicago and graduated magna cum laude from Cornell University.

DAVE LOGAN is a professor and former associate dean of executive education at USC's Marshall School of Business, where he pioneered several MBA courses as well as a Medical Management degree program. He also teaches at the Foundation for Medical Excellence and the International Center for Leadership in Finance (Malaysia). He is author or co-author of four books, including the bestselling Tribal Leadership and has been interviewed on CNN, NBC, and dozens of newspapers and radio stations across the country. Logan holds a Ph.D. in Organizational Communication from the Annenberg School at USC.

THE UNNAMED

Joshua Ferris

An utterly original and compelling novel about marriage and the mind from the author of the prizewinning New York Times bestseller Then We Came to the End.

During their 20-year marriage, Tim and Jane Farnsworth have savored the fruits of his labor as a high-powered lawyer: they live in a beautiful home, they travel on exotic vacations, they don't worry about money. Tim has twice battled a bizarre, inexplicable illness, but those episodes, while not exactly forgotten, have passed. Then the illness returns, causing him to behave in a frighteningly new way. Tim is driven out of his comfortable existence and into a way of life that he doesn't recognize, and that tests Jane's love in the most fundamental ways. How far will he go to fight his body's incomprehensible desires, and what will they both risk to find their way back to each other?

At once a heartbreaking story of family and marriage, and a meditation on the unseen forces of nature and desire, THE UNNAMED is a deeply felt, luminous novel about modern life, ancient yearnings, and the power of human connection.

- Joshua Ferris's debut novel, Then We Came to the End was one of the most acclaimed literary debuts of recent memory. A finalist for the National Book Award, it won the PEN/Hemingway award and the Barnes and Noble Discover award for 2007, and was one of the New York Times Book Review's 10 Best Books of the Year. The New York Times bestseller has sold close to 180,000 copies in hardcover and paperback to date.
- Scott Rudin producer of Revolutionary Road, No Country for Old Men, The Hours, among many other novels-to-films, has bought the film rights to THE UNNAMED
- We are sure to grow Ferris's fan base in audio even further by offering THE UNNAMED in an unabridged format.

Praise for Then We Came to the End:

"Fans of 'The Office'—American or British—will enjoy Joshua Ferris's take on working life. This debut novel is written from a plural first-person viewpoint... The characters are recognizable office personalities, and Deanna Hurst's narration gives each character life without going overboard with different voices for dialogue...With Hurst playing Ferris's dry, sharp humor perfectly, listeners will be sorry to hear the story come to an end."

JOSHUA FERRIS first novel, Then We Came to the End, has been translated into 24 languages. His fiction has appeared in The New Yorker, Granta, and Best New American Voices. He lives in New York.

ROBERT LUDLUM'S™ THE INFINITY AFFAIR

James H. Cobb, Series by Robert Ludlum

Lt. Colonel and the Covert-One Agency criss-cross the globe in a race to stop an evil doctor from acquiring the secret to human immortality.

The murder of two fellow microbiologists and a bizarre act of ecological sabotage draws Lt. Colonel Jon Smith and the Covert-One Agency into a strange global quest that will lead from villages in Africa to remote hamlets in New Zealand, Northern Japan and Chile's Atacama Desert. At stake is the discovery of biological sciences—the Common Universal Ancestor, the secret of life extension. Supported by the Covert-One operative Valerius and the brilliant and enigmatic agent Randi Russell, Smith is challenged both by the Covert-One Agency and a group determined to penetrate and destroy Covert-One's operations, to expose the administration political agenda, and an enigmatic doctor who is determined to learn and to control the secret of life extension. Dr. Valerius is a brilliant scientist and researcher with a dark agenda of his own. He is determined to learn and to control the secret of life extension. If he succeeds, mankind, and even the definition of humanity, will be forever altered beyond recognition—forever.

LIVING OPRAH

My One-Year Experiment to Live as TV's Most Influential Guru Advises
Robyn Okrant

Read by the Author

What would life be like if you followed Oprah's advice—to the letter—for an entire year? Robyn Okrant describes her yearlong journey and its impact on her life.

On January 1, 2008, a 35-year-old “average” woman embarked on a year-long journey with Oprah as her guide, following every piece of advice offered in Oprah's show, magazine and website. This is the funny, insightful account of what it was like to live Oprah.

Robyn Okrant spent an entire year doing everything Oprah said to do, from creating her personal Vision Board to buying leopard print flats. She cooked Oprah's favorite turkey burgers, decluttered, got her jeans tailored, removed her husband's TV from their bedroom, joined Oprah's book club, worked out according to Oprah's Best Life Challenge...the list goes on.

Okrant chose to do this when she realized that of all the cultural influences on American women, perhaps Oprah's is the single most prevalent one, and it made sense for someone to put it to the test. The results ranged from positive to life changing to hysterical to not so positive, like most things in life.

Month by month, the audiobook chronicles the assignments, advice and suggestions given by Oprah, a running tally of the financial and time costs required to do each assignment, the results of poll questions the author posted on her LivingOprah blog, and reflections on the results and revelations that Okrant experienced along the way. This powerful “year in the life” memoir is both truly personal and also a telling reflection on our culture.

- Okrant's blog (www.livingoprah.com) attracted more than 400,000 visits and over 126,000 unique visitors in 2008.
- Okrant's experiment has been featured in The New York Times, Entertainment Weekly, TV Guide and on NPR's All Things Considered as well as NBC's Today show.

MARRIAGE AND OTHER ACTS OF CHARITY

A Memoir

Kate Braestrup

Read by the Author

An unforgettable look at marriage, faith, and family by New York Times bestselling author Kate Braestrup.

In her award-winning memoir Here If You Need Me, Kate Braestrup won the hearts of listeners with her deeply moving and deftly humorous stories of faith, hope, and family. Now, with her inimitable voice and generous spirit, she turns her attention to the subjects of love and commitment in MARRIAGE AND OTHER ACTS OF CHARITY.

As a minister, Braestrup regularly performs weddings. She has also, at 44, been married twice and widowed once, and accordingly has much to say about life after the ceremony. Part memoir, part observation of modern marriage, and part meditation on how God and love figure in all our relationships, Braestrup proves yet again why her writing is “inspirational in the best sense” (New York Daily News).

RICH DAD'S ADVISORS®: THE ABC'S OF WRITING WINNING BUSINESS PLANS

How to Prepare a Business Plan That Others Will Want to Read—and Invest In Garrett Sutton Esq. and Robert T. Kiyosaki • Read by Garrett Sutton Esq.

Rich Dad's Advisor Garrett Sutton, author of OWN YOUR OWN CORPORATION, explains in very clear, easy-to-follow language.

Learn how to prepare and utilize the most important document for any organization—the business plan. Whether you are just starting out or are already in business and need to refocus your efforts, this practical guide will clearly instruct how to prepare a winning business plan. This audiobook will become a valued resource for entrepreneurs and business owners on their path towards future success at speaking venues.

There are as many outlines for business plans as there are business plans. But in THE ABCs OF HOW TO WRITE A BUSINESS PLAN, Garrett Sutton explains how the basics of writing a great business plan tend to fall into four main parts:

- THE BUSINESS — All pertinent aspects of the business from initial idea to service after the sale.
- THE MARKETING — A thorough discussion of the industry and your business's place in it.
- THE FINANCIALS — Short and long term costs and revenues to determine risk.
- THE SUPPORTING MATERIAL — How to back up your proposal.

RICH DAD'S ADVISORS® HOW TO BUY AND SELL A BUSINESS

How You Can Win in the Business Quadrant
Garrett Sutton Esq. and Robert T. Kiyosaki

Read by Garrett Sutton Esq.

Owning your own business may sound like paradise but being the owner also means taking the responsibility for the business's health. Now, Garrett Sutton gives potential business owners the practical information they need to fulfill their dream of owning their own business.

"Sutton (Own Your Own Corporation) offers a comprehensive guide for both buyers and sellers of businesses. The book, the latest in the popular Rich Dad's Advisors series, covers important topics, including valuation, negotiating strategies, confidentiality, franchises and closing. Sutton presents the information in a straightforward manner, using case histories to illustrate his points. Chapters end with brief 'Rich Dad's Tips' summarizing key points. Many books offer scenarios, but fail to explain what readers should take away. Thankfully, Sutton goes to great lengths to clarify his examples."

—Publishers Weekly

GARRETT SUTTON is an attorney with over 20 years of experience in assisting individuals and businesses to determine their appropriate corporate structure, limit their liability, protect their assets, and advance their personal and financial goals.

BEAUTIFUL CREATURES

Kami Garcia and Margaret Stohl

Some loves are meant to be...others are cursed.

Lena Duchannes is unlike anyone the town of Gatlin has ever seen, and she's struggling to conceal her power and a curse that has haunted her family for generations. But even within the overgrown gardens and crumbling graveyards of the forgotten South, a secret cannot stay hidden forever.

Ethan Wate, desperate to escape from Gatlin, is haunted by dreams of a beautiful girl he has never met. When Lena moves into Gatlin's oldest and most infamous plantation, Ethan is inexplicably drawn to her and determined to uncover the connection between them.

ADAPTABILITY

How to Survive Change You Didn't Ask For

M. J. Ryan

Read by the Author

An insightful, utterly practical guide for how to change when change is required.

Whether they are trying to stay relevant at age 60 in a large corporation, coping with a big new job with unfamiliar rules and methods, facing a scary reality that their industry is in danger of becoming extinct, struggling to get donations for their nonprofit in a troubled economy, or, as a result of our current economic crisis, suddenly unemployed and looking for a job, people of all ages and walks of life are scrambling to deal with the vast changes that are happening in every industry, every profession, every part of the world.

We're expected to not only keep up, but find new and creative solutions. We find ourselves in uncharted territory with no road map to follow. Knowing that you need to change, or even wanting to change isn't enough. Without rewiring your thinking at the root and knowing what actions to take, all you get from that is wish and want and, usually, stuckness. We need a revolution in the way we think in order to survive in the future. Rather than simply exhorting people to change, Adaptability provides a roadmap for how to actually develop the capacity to change.

- With an aging baby boomer population, those over 55 need to be able to adapt to whatever changes come their way.
- Ryan is one of the creators of the Random Acts of Kindness series, which has sold more than one million copies.

LOVE IN 90 DAYS

The Essential Guide to Finding Your Own True Love

Diana Kirschner, Ph.D.

Read by the Author

The secrets to finding Mr. Right in just 90 days.

Diana Kirschner, Ph.D., knows the questions single women everywhere face: “Why am I attracted to the wrong kind of guys?” “Why is he just not that into me?” “Why can’t I seem to find the One?” In LOVE IN 90 DAYS, Dr. Diana reveals the secrets to finding Mr. Right and the crucial steps single women can take to create fulfilling love that lasts.

Most singles unconsciously make the same mistakes over and over again in love, regardless of age, work success, or the type of man they are dating. Using her unique four-pronged approach, Dr. Diana pulls no punches. She outlines a program that gets women on the path to smash through their self-sabotage and forge a healthy love relationship.

DIANA KIRSCHNER, PH.D. is a renowned clinical psychologist who has over 25 years of professional and practical experience doing therapy and workshops for singles and writing relationship articles for women. She starred in Love in 90 Days Boot Camp, a TV pilot that was one of only five Official Selections in the reality category of the 2006 New York Television Festival. She has been happily married for over 25 years.

THE DEFINING MOMENTS

How to Seize Life's Little Opportunities and Turn Them into Something Big Stephen Perrine with Mike Zimmerman

Read by the Author

Editor in chief of Best Life offers men this guidebook on life.

From Best Life magazine editor-in-chief Stephen Perrine comes an honest guidebook about life: how to achieve goals, define values for men, and become the men they want to be.

Best Life magazine has gone behind the scenes with some of the world's most successful men in the fields of business, politics, film, television, and sports, including Disney honcho Michael Eisner, Barack Obama, Lance Armstrong, Dan Rather, Richard Branson, Mark Wahlberg, David Duchovny, and Tyler Perry, to name just a few. They found that each of these tremendously successful men had a moment in their lives at which their character, their ambitions, and their values were shaped—a defining moment. Whether it was an unsuccessful political campaign, homelessness, a battle with illness, a father-son feud, or a life-altering career change, these men overcame the odds to determine their own destinies.

In The Defining Moments, listeners are granted inside access to the moments that defined the lives of a variety of notable public figures, drawn from extensive interviews and bolstered by an exclusive, eye-opening Harris Poll of nearly 1,500 men, as well as cutting-edge psychological research. Perrine tells listeners how to zero in on and delineate their own defining moments to chart a course to greater personal and professional success. By recognizing the awesome power of the moments that shape their lives, listeners can learn from these experiences, gain precious insight, and grow as fathers, husbands, sons, and men.

- Men are granted access to the inside stories of successful men from the worlds of sports, film, business, television and politics to learn what it was that shaped their lives and made them the successes they are today.

STEPHEN PERRINE is the editor-in-chief of Best Life magazine, the fastest-growing men's magazine in the United States. A leading voice on men's issues and attitudes, Perrine has appeared on national television and media including the Today show, Good Morning America, The Early Show, CNN, and MSNBC.

MIKE ZIMMERMAN is a contributing editor for Men's Health magazine and has written nearly 40 celebrity cover stories for Men's Health, Best Life, and other publications.

BLACK HILLS

Dan Simmons

The bestselling author of The Terror is back with a thrilling tale of supernatural suspense set on the American frontier.

Paha Sapa, a young Sioux warrior, “counts coup” on General George Armstrong Custer at the moment Custer lies dying on the battlefield at the Little Bighorn. He feels the legendary general’s ghost enter him then and will hear that ghost’s voice within him for the rest of his event-filled life.

In BLACK HILLS, Dan Simmons seamlessly weaves together the stories of Paha Sapa, Custer, and the American West, from the Battle of the Little Bighorn up through the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair and the Dust Bowl of the 1930’s, depicting a violent and tumultuous time in the history of both Native and white Americans. Haunted not only by Custer’s ghost but also by his ability to see into the memories and futures of men like the Sioux war-chief Crazy Horse and Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor responsible for Mount Rushmore, Paha Sapa’s long life is driven by a dramatic vision he experienced as a boy in his people’s sacred Black Hills. In August of 1936, as a dynamite expert working on the massive Mount Rushmore project, Paha Sapa plans to silence his ghost forever and reclaim his people’s legacy—on the very day FDR comes to Mount Rushmore to dedicate the Jefferson face.

- The Terror debuted on the New York Times extended bestseller list and was voted one of the Top 10 novels of 2007 by Entertainment Weekly.
- Acclaimed filmmaker Guillermo del Toro (Pan’s Labyrinth, Hellboy) acquired the film rights to Drood.
- Both The Terror and Drood won AudioFile Earphones Awards, and The Terror was a 2008 Audies Finalist. Hachette Audio expects more even accolades and bigger sales as we bring Dan Simmons to consumers and reviewers in an Unabridged recording for the first time.

Praise for Drood:

“A top-notch, genre-bending tour de force, this is where history and horror meet.”

—Booklist (starred review)

“Simon Prebble’s impeccable speech is the perfect match for this sinister Dickensian tale. He effortlessly shifts among the story’s many characters, imbuing each not only with a voice and dialect, but also with a distinct personality...Narrative passages in the complicated plot benefit from Prebble’s natural speech patterns—clear, very British, and so suited to the text as to sound as if he wrote them himself.”

WORST CASE

James Patterson and Michael Ledwidge

Detective Michael Bennett already has 10 kids—and now he must protect the children of Manhattan’s wealthiest citizens from a cold-blooded killer.

Children of New York’s elite are being abducted and held hostage. But the criminal doesn’t crave money—he only wants to ask these privileged kids if they know the price others pay for their luxurious lifestyles. A wrong answer has fatal consequences.

To Detective Michael Bennett, it is clear that these murders are only the beginning. Their killer has insanely grand ambition—and is about to bring the entire city to its knees. With all of New York in chaos, Bennett teams up with FBI agent Emily Parker, and the two set out to capture the mastermind before he sets in motion his scariest session yet—a deadly lesson for the entire world.

- WORST CASE is the third book in the thrilling series that began with the #1 New York Times bestseller Step on a Crack, which introduced Michael Bennett of the NYPD and sold 988,000 copies.
- James Patterson has sold more than 160 million copies of his novels worldwide.
- In 2008, with seven New York Times bestsellers, Patterson was officially America’s #1 bestselling author, selling more than Stephen King and John Grisham combined.
- Run for Your Life will be made available as a value-priced Unabridged <replay> in January to tie in with this new title in the Detective Michael Bennett series.

Praise for Step On A Crack:

“Intense chapters make it impossible to stop listening to this well crafted story.”

—AudioFile Magazine

“Patterson and Ledwidge introduce a new hero in an exciting thriller set in the heart of Manhattan....Totally gripping and downright impossible to put down.”

—Booklist

“A new book by Patterson means only one thing to me—I know it is a book that will keep me on the edge of my seat...This one met my expectations and more.”

—Bestsellersworld.com

JAMES PATTERSON’S most recent bestseller is Cross Country. He is one of the world’s most popular authors and lives in Florida.

MICHAEL LEDWIDGE is the co-author of several books with Patterson. Run For Your Life is their most recent novel.

TRAINING CAMP

What the Best Do Better Than Everyone Else

Jon Gordon

Read by the Author

A business fable about excellence—from the bestselling author of The Energy Bus and The No Complaining Rule.

In the spirit of his international bestseller The Energy Bus, Jon Gordon returns with another inspirational business fable filled with invaluable lessons and insights on bringing out the best in leaders and teams.

Training Camp follows the story of Martin Jones, a five-foot-seven rookie trying to make it to the bright lights and big money of the NFL. He's spent his whole life proving to the critics that a small guy with a big heart can succeed against all odds. After spraining his ankle in the preseason, Martin thinks his dream is lost. Just then he happens to meet a very special coach who shares nine life-changing lessons that keep Martin's dream alive—and might even make him the best of the best...

Based on his work with professional sports teams, world-class sales organizations, and interviews with top professionals in a wide variety of fields, Gordon reveals the deep truths and proven strategies that get the best to the top of their game.

Training Camp shows how the very best performers—whether it be in sports or in business—all share the same nine qualities. Among other traits, the best of the best are able to maintain a big-picture vision while taking zoom-focused actions, they are mentally stronger, they inspire excellence in the people around them, and they become the model by which others measure themselves. For anyone who wants to make it to the top of their field, this is a practical life-changing story with simple wisdom about what true excellence requires—and how anyone can achieve it.

- Gordon is an international bestselling author of The Energy Bus and The No Complaining Rule. Jon and his books have been featured on CNN, NBC's Today Show and in Forbes, O Magazine, the Wall Street Journal and the New York Times.

THE LITTLE BOOK OF SAFE MONEY

How to Conquer Killer Markets, Con Artists, and Yourself

Jason Zweig

Read by Sean Pratt

One of today's most influential financial commentators, Jason Zweig, tackles the question that is on everyone's mind: how do you keep your money safe during such a rocky, unstable economy?

The Little Book of Safe Money acts as a guide for those trying to make their way through a down market. The topics covered include everything from investing behavior (why our minds come with their own set of biases that often prove harmful) to the use of financial advisors (the good, the bad and the ugly). But the audiobook goes one step further in questioning an investor's true appetite for risk; according to Zweig, our appetites change according to the circumstance and we must recognize this in order to map out a long-term financial plan.

The Little Book of Safe Money also contradicts a lot of the myths that whirl around Wall Street with chapter heads like, "Stocks for the Wrong Run," "The Small-Cap Hoax," and "Hedge-Fund Hooey." Written in the classic Little Book style, Zweig peels away layer after layer of buzz words, emotion and myths to reveal what is really going on in our economy and the financial markets today and offers the necessary tools on how not only to survive but prosper.

- The name Jason Zweig is synonymous with today's top financial commentary. His columns for Money and Time are followed and cited regularly. He is the editor of the updated edition of Benjamin Graham's The Intelligent Investor, the classic text that Warren Buffett calls "by far the best book on investing ever written."
- Now, more than ever, investors are looking for a familiar voice to walk them through such volatile times. The Little Book of Safe Money offers the theory, background and tools to equip investors for a down market.

JASON ZWEIG is a senior writer for Money magazine and a guest columnist for Time magazine and cnn.com. He is also the author of Your Money and Your Brain. Before joining Money in 1995, Zweig was the mutual funds editor at Forbes. Earlier, he had been a reporter-researcher for the Economy & Business section of Time. Zweig is also a popular public speaker who has addressed the American Association of Individual Investors, the Aspen Institute, the CFA Institute, the Morningstar Investment Conference, and university audiences at Harvard, Stanford, and Oxford. Zweig serves on the editorial boards of Financial History magazine and The Journal of Behavioral Finance.

HOW WE CHOOSE

The Subtext of Life

Sheena Iyengar

Read by the Author

The nationally recognized, leading authority on choice exposes the surprising truths behind the decisions we make everyday.

Every day we make choices. Coke or Pepsi? Save or spend? Stay or go?

Whether mundane or life-altering, these choices define us and shape our lives. Sheena Iyengar asks the difficult questions about how and why we choose: Is the desire for choice innate or bound by culture? Why do we sometimes choose against our best interests? How much control do we really have over what we choose? Her award-winning research reveals that the answers are surprising and profound. In our world of shifting political and cultural forces, technological revolution, and interconnected commerce, our decisions have far-reaching consequences. Use this audiobook as your companion and guide for the many challenges ahead.

- Some of the groundbreaking research behind HOW WE CHOOSE was featured in Malcolm Gladwell's #1 bestseller Blink. Iyengar's work has also been cited in Fortune, Time, the New York Times, and The Wall Street Journal.
- Iyengar's conversational tone and in-depth analysis has universal appeal and will speak to the same audiences that made Freakonomics and The World is Flat 3.0 blockbuster bestsellers.
- Sheena Iyengar holds degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, The Wharton School of Business, and Stanford University, and is a professor at Columbia University. In 2001 she received the presidential Early Career Award and in 2005 she was invited to serve as a fellow at Princeton's Institute for Advanced Study.

"Sheena Iyengar's work on choice and how our minds deal with it has been groundbreaking, repeatedly surprising, and enormously important. She is someone we need to listen to."

—Atul Gawande, author of Better and Complications

"No one asks better questions, or comes up with more intriguing answers."

—Malcolm Gladwell, author of Outliers

SHEENA IYENGAR lives in New York City.

THE SKY IS FALLING A MAXIMUM RIDE NOVEL

James Patterson

Turbulence ahead! The Flock is in trouble—can Max hold the members together, or could this be the end?

Accompanied by a convoy of cargo planes, Max and the Flock travel to Africa to distribute food to thousands. Among the volunteers is their benefactor, the mysterious billionaire, Dr. Hans Gunther-Hagen. Max is intrigued by his generosity, but there's also something about him—and his intense scrutiny of the Flock—that makes her fear the worst.

During their trip a cryptic message from a young girl arrives, warning them “The sky will fall.” As Max and the Flock near the end of their journey, something unbelievably momentous shakes up the Flock—pushing Max and Fang closer than ever. Can the team weather the storm, or will the turmoil rip them apart for the last time?

SIDETRACKED HOME EXECUTIVES™

From Pigpen to Paradise

Pam Young and Peggy Jones

Read by the Authors

Pam and Peggy, with warmth, humor and sensitivity, teach the listener to take control of their homes through their own personal stories.

Peggy and Pam were two desperately disorganized sisters. They started each day with the best of intentions but they never made it because they were SIDETRACKED HOME EXECUTIVES caught in the disorder of misplaced priorities, half-completed chores, and undirected energies. Two smart ladies who'd never used their heads when coping with their homes.

So, they analyzed their lives and set up a rotating card system that scheduled their chores on a daily, weekly, and monthly basis. With a combination of the sympathy of a fellow former slob, and the firm resolution of a for-your-own-good mother, they show listeners how they too can get organized.

- This classic guide, a perennial backlist star for HBG, has sold almost 400,000 copies and is now available for the first time in audio, read by the authors.

"Vivid, earthy, ingenious. The authors capture the real pleasure and liberation of being organized."

NEVER MAKE THE FIRST OFFER And Other Wisdom No Dealmaker Should Be Without Donald Dell with John Boswell

Business and negotiating tactics from a master dealmaker and sports agent.

Donald Dell is a legend in the sports agent business. He's been at it for almost forty years, with a record of successful deals that puts him in a league of his own.

His unique guide to negotiating includes examples from Dell's dealings with some of the biggest names in sports, stars like Michael Jordon, Jimmy Connors, Andy Roddick, and Patrick Ewing. The audio book brings the inner workings of the negotiating room to life, from the intense all-night wrangling sessions to the devious battles of wits. There's plenty of backstabbing, but also moments of glory earned by a brilliant negotiator at the top of his game.

Dell covers the various aspects of negotiations, in sports and in a more general context, such as understanding what's important, playing to your audience, gaining leverage and getting agreement. This includes such "life skills" as gaining trust, building relationships, and getting in touch with your "inner competitor." They also provide in-depth prescriptive instruction in sports agency, explaining such specifics as the standard player agreement, licensing agreements, and stadium naming rights contracts.

Dell also shares his eight (sort of) absolute laws of negotiating, including:

- Never make the first offer: The more information you can get from the other side before you name a number, the better your position.
- Always be prepared to walk away: that gives you leverage. Conversely, if the other party senses you're negotiating from fear, you are immediately at a big disadvantage.
- In every negotiation there is a moment of truth: The key is to position your offer so that when it gets to that point, it's hard for them to say no.

DONALD DELL is the co-founder of the Association of Tennis Professionals, the organization that put professional tennis on the map. He was also an accomplished player in his own right, once ranked #4 in the U.S. and #1 in doubles. In 1970 Dell founded ProServ, a sports agency that has represented the biggest names in sports, including Arthur Ashe, Stan Smith, Phil Ford, Adrian Dantly, James Worthy, Patrick Ewing, and Michael Jordan. Dell is also the founder and current chairman of the Legg Mason Tennis Classic and a notable TV tennis commentator, covering Wimbledon for NBC with Bud Collins for many years.

JOHN BOSWELL is a New York-based book packager who has conceived and created over 700 books for publishers. He has also written or co-written 17 books including the #1 New York Times bestseller (with Mark McCormack) What They Don't Teach You At Harvard Business School. Most recently, he collaborated with David Novak, CEO of Yum! Brands, on The Education Of An Accidental CEO.

FIND OUT WHO'S NORMAL AND WHO'S NOT

Proven Techniques to Quickly Uncover Anyone's Degree of Emotional Stability

David J. Lieberman Ph.D.

NY Times bestselling author offers a way to measure a person's emotional stability.

The Stability Quotient (SQ) is the measure a person's emotional health, or lack therefore. In these ever-chaotic times, you need to protect yourself from those who are a few cards short of a full deck. Unstable people are more likely to try take advantage of you, lie, cheat, abuse, or just plain make your life miserable. Find out if anyone from your date, nanny, coworker, neighbor, potential employee, client, or fiancé—is normal, neurotic, or worse! In person, on line, or over the phone, discover near fool-proof tactics that quickly disclose to you, whether someone in your life is a few fries short of a Happy Meal, or worse and your seemingly normal Dr. Jekyll is really a Mr. Hyde.

- How close to snapping is she?
- How will he perform in a crisis?
- Is she a danger to herself or to others?
- Am I in a relationship with a stable person?
- Can she handle this news?
- Is he going to turn violent?
- Can I trust her with my kids?
- Is he unstable or just a bit eccentric?
- Is he joking or he's serious about the idea?
- Is my coworker troubled or just plain moody?
- Is my friend in danger of hurting herself, or others?
- Is my date stable?
- How delicate do I need to be in firing this employee?

DAVID J. LIEBERMAN, Ph.D. is an award-winning author and internationally recognized leader in the fields of human behavior and interpersonal relationships. Techniques based on his six books, which have been translated into eighteen languages and include two New York Times bestsellers, are used by the FBI, the Dept. of the Navy, Fortune 500 companies, and by governments, corporations and mental health professionals in more than 25 countries. Dr. Lieberman's work has been featured in publications around the world and he has appeared as a guest expert on more than 200 programs such as: Today, Fox News, PBS, The Montel Williams Show and The View. Dr. Lieberman, who has a Ph.D. in psychology, lectures and holds workshops across the country on a variety of topics. He lives in New Jersey.
