The Photographic Card Deck of the Solar System

126 Cards Featuring Stories, Scientific Data, and Big, Beautiful Photographs of All the Planets, Moons, and Other Heavenly Bodies that Orbit Our Sun

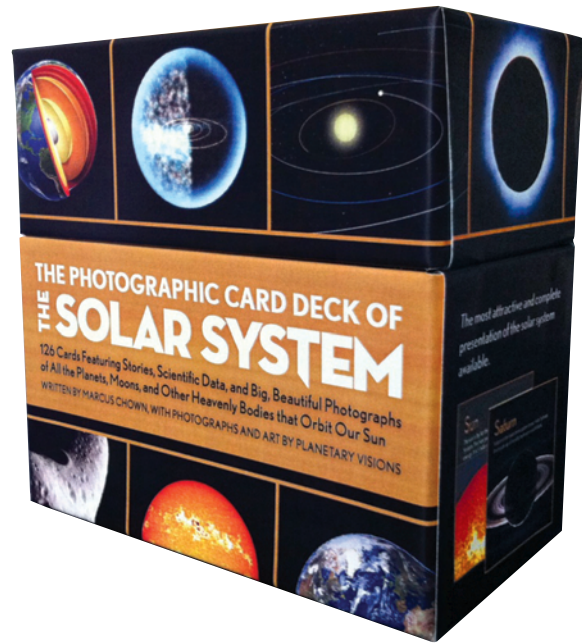

Marcus Chown

A companion to Solar System: A Visual Exploration of the Planets, Moons, and Other Heavenly Bodies that Orbit Our Sun, this gorgeous photographic card deck highlights fascinating facts about our solar system—one topic per card—with a full-size image on the front and fascinating information on the back.

The Photographic Card Deck of the Solar System is the most beautiful and detailed set of cards ever produced on the subject. The deck includes 126 5" x 5" cards, each covering a single topic, such as an individual planet or moon, asteroids, comets, gravity, the movement of the planets, solar wind, dwarf planets, dark matter, the possibility of life elsewhere, and more. The front side of each card features a full-size photograph while the back includes explanatory text and key scientific data illustrating the most important and interesting aspects of each topic.

The cards are perfect for students, but they also make an excellent gift for scientists and adults who are fascinated by the beauty and complexity of space.

Marcus Chown is an award-winning writer and broadcaster. Formerly a radio astronomer at the California Institute of Technology, he is now cosmology consultant for New Scientist magazine. He lives in London.

Writers Celebrate Their Favorite Places to Browse, Read, and Shop

In My Bookstore our greatest authors write about the pleasure, guidance, and support that their favorite bookstores and booksellers have given them over the years. The relationship between a writer and his or her local store and staff can last for years or even decades. Often it's the author's local store that supported him during the early days of his career, that continues to introduce and hand-sell her work to new readers, and that serves as the anchor for the community in which he lives and works.

My Bookstore collects the essays, stories, odes, and words of gratitude and praise for stores across the country in 6856 68 pieces written by our most beloved authors. It's a joyful, industry-wide celebration of our brick-and-mortar stores and a clarion call to readers everywhere at a time when the value and importance of these stores should be shouted from the rooftops.

Perfectly charming line drawings by Leif Parsons illustrate each storefront and other distinguishing features of the shops.

In this enthusiastic, heartfelt, and sometimes humorous ode to bookstores and booksellers, 68 well-known writers pay tribute to the brick-and-mortar stores they love and often call their second homes.

Ronald Rice has worked in book publishing as a sales and marketing professional for more than 25 years, working with and promoting independent bookstores. He was a four-time nominee for Publishers Weekly Sales Representative of the Year and has served multiyear terms on both the New England Independent Booksellers Association and Southern Booksellers Alliance advisory councils. He is currently a publishing-industry consultant. He lives in Philadelphia, PA.

Leif Parsons is an award-winning illustrator whose work has been published by a variety of editorial and commercial clients including the New York Times, Harpers, and McSweeney's. He lives in Brooklyn, NY.

Simon Winchester

Bestselling author of The Professor and the Madman, Atlantic, and Krakatoa

Skulls

An Exploration of Alan Dudley's Curious Collection

Simon Winchester is the best-selling author of The Professor and the Madman, Atlantic, The Map that Changed the World, Krakatoa, A Crack in the Edge of the World, The Man Who Loved China and more than a dozen other books. His work has appeared in The New York Times, The New York Review of Books, National Geographic, Lapham's Quarterly and elsewhere. Mr. Winchester was made Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) by Elizabeth II in 2006. He lives in New York City and Massachusetts.

In Skulls, best-selling author Simon Winchester (author of The Professor and the Madman; Atlantic: A Biography of the Ocean; Krakatoa: The Day the World Exploded; and others) tells the rich and fascinating story of skulls, both human and animal, from every perspective imaginable: historical, biographical, cultural, and iconographic. Presenting details about the parts of a skull (including the cranium, the mandible, the shape and positioning of eye sockets, and species-specific features like horns, teeth, beaks, and bills), information about the science and pseudoscience of skulls, and a look at skulls in religion, art, and popular culture, his stories and information are riveting and enlightening.

At the center of Skulls is a stunning, never-before-seen visual array of the skulls of more than 300 animals that walk, swim, and fly. The skulls are from the collection of Alan Dudley, a British collector and owner of what is probably the largest and most complete private collection of skulls in the world. Every skull is beautifully photographed to show several angles and to give the reader the most intimate view possible. Each includes a short explanatory paragraph and a data box with information on the animal's taxonomy, behavior, and diet.

Skulls was published in December 2011 as an e-book for the iPad by the innovative e-book publishers Touch Press, creators of the best-selling e-books for iPad The Elements and Solar System. Both books were also published in print by Black Dog & Leventhal.

Skulls is a beautiful, spellbinding exploration of more than 300 different animal crania—amphibians, birds, fish, mammals, and reptiles—written by New York Times best-selling author Simon Winchester and produced in collaboration with Theodore Gray and Touch Press, the geniuses behind The Elements and Solar System.

MONTY PYTHON'S FLYING CIRCUS

Every script, every episode of the innovative, hilarious, and absurd Monty Python's Flying Circus, one of the most influential television series of all time, is included here, plus hundreds of annotations, behind-the-scenes stories, interviews, and more, as well as photographs, drawings, and Terry Gilliam's iconic artwork.

Monty Python's Flying Circus is one of the most popular, important, and oft-quoted comedy series of all time. Python's influence on comedy has been compared to the Beatles' influence on music. This landmark work collects the complete scripts for every one of the 45 episodes of Flying Circus: every silly setup, every clever conceit, every snide insult, and every saucy aside from these classic skits, including "The Ministry of Silly Walks," "The Dead Parrot," "Banter in a Cheese Shop," "Spam, the Funniest Joke in the World," "The Spanish Inquisition," "The Argument Clinic," "The Fish-Slapping Dance," "The Lumberjack Song," and all the rest.

Every script is thoroughly annotated with notes that cover the plethora of cultural, historical, and topical references touched upon in each sketch. Sidebars and commentary throughout include profiles of the principles—Graham Chapman, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam, and John Cleese—and interviews with the cast and crew; fascinating facts about technical concerns, set design, and shooting locations; insider stories from on and off the set, including arguments, accidents, and practical jokes; goofs and gaffes; and much more. Also included are hundreds of stills and artwork from the shows.

Luke Dempsey is deputy editor of booklist.com and the author of the memoir A Supremely Bad Idea. A native of England—and a massive Python fan—he currently lives in Brooklyn, NY.

Psychos

Serial Killers, Depraved Madmen, and the Criminally Insane

Edited and with Commentary by John Skipp

This collection of 35 terrifying tales of serial killers at large, written by the great masters of the genre, plumbs the horrifying depths of a deranged mind and the evil that compels a human being to murder, gruesomely and methodically, over and over again.

From Hannibal Lecter (The Silence of the Lambs) to Patrick Bateman (American Psycho), stories of serial killers and psychos loom large and menacing in our collective psyche. Tales of their grisly conquests have kept us covering under the covers but still turning the pages.

Psychos is the first book to collect in a single volume the scariest and most well-crafted fictional works about these deranged killers. Some of the stories are classics, the best that the genre has to offer, by renowned writers such as Neil Gaiman, Bret Easton Ellis, Joyce Carol Oates, Robert Bloch, and Thomas Harris. Other selections are from the latest and most promising crop of new authors.

John Skipp, who is also the editor of Zombies, Demons, and Werewolves and Shapeshifters, provides fascinating insight, through two nonfiction essays, into our insatiable obsession with serial killers and how these madmen are portrayed in popular culture. Resources at the end of the book include lists of the genre's best long-form fiction, movies, websites, and writers.

John Skipp is a New York Times best-selling author and editor whose 18 books have sold millions of copies in a dozen languages worldwide. His first anthology, Book of the Dead, laid the foundation in 1989 for modern zombie literature. He later edited three more zombie anthologies, including Mondo Zombie, which won the Bram Stoker Award for best anthology. He is the author of several books in Black Dog's horror series including Zombies and Demons, which also won the Bram Stoker Award. He lives in Los Angeles.

Kovels' Antiques and Collectibles Price Guide 2013

SEPTEMBER 2012

America's Best-selling Antiques Annual

Terry Kovel and Kim Kovel

The 45th edition of America's leading price guide on antiques and collectibles, featuring all-new actual prices (not estimates) in 700 categories with more than 2,500 photographs

"Kovels' guides are considered the bibles of the field."
—The New York Times

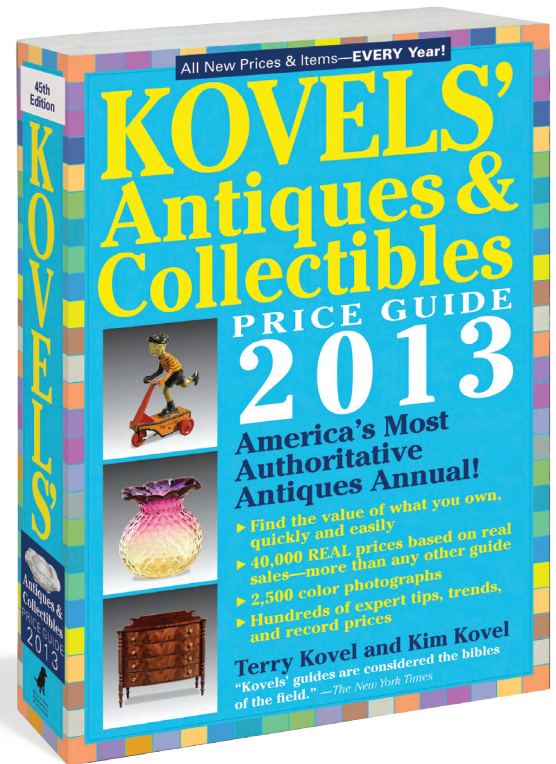

Kovels' is the only guide that lists actual prices collected from the previous year's sales. With 2,500 full-color photographs, it is the best-illustrated guide, as well as the most complete and easiest to use, allowing every collector, from the casual hobbyist to the antiques professional, to find the value of what they own or discover.

Kovels' is the best source for the most current actual prices. No website, including the Kovels' own, has this information. The most trusted source in the antiques and collectibles pricing business, Kovels' also has more tips, marks, logos, and photographs of the items—in all price ranges—than any other book on the market.

Organized into 700 categories covering an enormous range of interests, such as Pressed Glass, Pottery and Porcelain, Jewelry, Furniture, Photography, and Sports Memorabilia, this guide features user-friendly sidebars, cross-references, and expert insider comments and tips throughout, allowing readers to buy, sell, and collect with confidence.

Terry Kovel is a lifelong collector and expert who has written more than 100 books on antiques and collectibles. She writes a nationally syndicated newspaper column, a subscriber newsletter, and an e-newsletter. Terry lives near Cleveland, OH.

Kim Kovel, daughter of Terry and Ralph Kovel, caught the collecting bug as a child, growing up in a house filled with antiques and traveling regularly to antique shows and flea markets all over the country. She contributes to and manages Kovels.com and has spent the past 12 years working on the Kovels' price guides and other Kovel projects. She lives with her husband, two teenage daughters, and her collections in Miami, FL.

OCTOBER 2012

Jacques Pépin is universally hailed by professional chefs and home cooks as the grand master of cooking skills and methods. Now, his classic work, JACQUES PÉPIN NEW COMPLETE TECHNIQUES, is completely revised and updated with more than 1,000 color photographs and 30% new techniques.

Based on Jacques Pépin's 1978 and 1979 archetypal works, La Méthode and La Technique, Jacques Pépin's Complete Techniques has become a cookbook classic in its own right, selling more than 140,000 copies. Comprehensive and authoritative, New Complete Techniques includes more than 600 techniques and methods and 160 recipes that are demonstrated by Pépin in thousands of step-by-step photographs. It is a culinary course on every aspect of classic cooking, from the basics (how to sharpen a knife or peel an onion) and the practical (how to properly bone a chicken) to the whimsical (how to make decorative swans and flowers out of fruits and vegetables) and the complex (how to use an old refrigerator as a smoker for trout). The time-tested recipes show chefs, from the greenest home cook to the seasoned professional, how to put techniques into practice. This completely revised edition includes thousands of color and black-and-white photographs throughout and is redesigned to make it even easier to follow the step-by-step techniques.

REVISED EDITION OF THE CLASSIC WORK

24 Frameable Maps and Views

The Granger Collection

Four new titles in Black Dog's Maps and Views collection celebrate the history and the beauty of some of America's most beloved cities and locations with removable, frameable images. Perfect for the home, classroom, office, or dorm.

Black Dog's Historic Maps and Views collection is a one-of-a-kind series of beautifully reproduced, frameable images. Each book celebrates a popular city or location. The 24 maps and views featured in each book range from as far back as the early 17th century to the present day. The selections include some of the earliest known maps of each city or area, as well as topographical maps, views of iconic locations throughout the city, transit maps, and much more. The original printing information is printed on the reverse side of each map and is accompanied by brief text that describes the image in a historic context and further illuminates its qualities. Each book is also introduced by a Granger Collection curator.

The Granger Collection holds millions of images spanning more than 25,000 years of world history, from before the Stone Age to the dawn of the Space Age. The Granger Collection specializes in the history of people, places, things, and events represented in a variety of mediums, including photographs, paintings, engravings, lithographs, and more.

40 Selections from the World's Best-Loved Stories for Parent and Child to Share

Edited by Susan Kantor

Reformatted and redesigned, these three books in Black Dog's popular Read-Aloud series collect the most beloved stories, fairy tales, poems, legends, and myths of children's literature.

Reading to your child is the best way to instill in him or her a lifelong love of reading. Just ten minutes in length, the stories chosen for these read-aloud books are some of the most popular and best-loved of their kind and are perfect for bedtime, nap time, or story hour.

Read-Aloud Classics includes ten-minute selections from The Call of the Wild, Black Beauty, The Tales of the Arabian Nights, Hansel and Gretel, Peter Pan, Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty in the Wood, Jack and the Beanstalk, The Wizard of Oz, and more. The selections from Read-Aloud Poems have been carefully chosen to appeal to a child's sensibility and include work from some of the world's greatest poets, such as Lewis Carroll, Emily Dickinson, Shel Silverstein, Edward Lear, William Blake, and more. Read-Aloud African-American Stories introduces children to the rich, entertaining, and instructive tradition of African-American storytelling. The book features myths and fables, fairy tales and folklore, Famous Rabbit stories, Hawk and Chicken tales, and tall tales, plus biographies of famous African-American heroes, recollections of slavery, African-American songs, and more.

Beautifully illustrated and designed, Read-Aloud Classics includes approximately 50 original illustrations published with the stories. The Read-Aloud Poems and Read-Aloud African-American Stories feature original artwork specially commissioned for these books.

Complete Diabetic Cookbook

Healthy, Delicious Recipes
the Whole Family Can Enjoy

Mary Jane Finsand, Karin Cadwell, Ph.D.,
Edith White, M.Ed.

For the millions of Americans living with diabetes, the Complete Diabetic Cookbook offers 2,000 low-sugar, high-flavor recipes that everyone in the family will love.

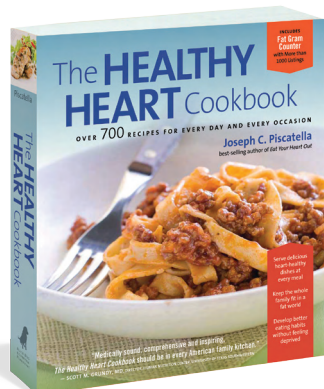

For a diabetic, dietary constraints are a constant concern and meal-planning is a daily challenge. Author Mary Jane Finsand had been cooking two meals every night—one for her family and a special meal for her diabetic husband—when she decided there had to be a better solution. She began adapting her favorite recipes for a diabetic diet, and the result is this extraordinarily comprehensive cookbook of more than 2,000 recipes for every type of food imaginable, with a special focus on more than 1,000 different kinds of diabetic-friendly desserts.

- More than 2,000 recipes, half of which are desserts
- Includes exchange list values from the American Diabetic Association and the American Dietetic Association
- Target “New Year, New You” features and roundups in national press
- National radio giveaways and promotions

Mary Jane Finsand is the author of more than a dozen highly successful books about diabetic cooking.

Karin Cadwell, Ph.D., R.N., F.A.A.N., R.L.C., I.B.C.L.C. was visiting professor and chair of the Health Communications Masters Degree program at Emerson College and is an adjunct professor at the Union Institute and University. She lives in Massachusetts.

Edith White, M.Ed., is a registered nurse. She lives in Massachusetts.

The Healthy Heart Cookbook

Over 700 Recipes for Every Day and Every Occasion

Joseph C. Piscatella

For the millions of Americans living with heart disease, The Healthy Heart Cookbook provides hundreds of delicious and healthy recipes for all the family favorites, from hamburgers to pancakes.

In The Healthy Heart Cookbook, Joe Piscatella, a heart patient himself who has turned his life and health around by following a healthy diet, offers 700 of his wife Berine’s favorite, quick-fix, heart-healthy recipes. From marinated flank steak to strawberry shortcake, each recipe has been tested countless times at the family dinner table. By modifying favorite family recipes and stripping out unhealthy ingredients, the original flavor and appeal are maintained.

Based on guidelines from the American Heart Association, each recipe includes nutritional breakdowns, and the 1000-plus-entry fat-gram counter for common foods makes healthy substitutions a breeze.

- 700 recipes for delicious heart-healthy food the whole family will enjoy
- Includes a fat-gram counter with more than 1,000 listings
- Target “New Year, New You” features and roundups in national press
- National radio giveaways and promotions

Joseph C. Piscatella is the author of five books including Don’t Eat Your Heart Out Cookbook, Choices for a Healthy Heart, Controlling Your Fat Tooth, Fat-Proof Your Child, and The Fat Gram Guide to Restaurant Food. He has served as the only non-medical member of the National Cardiac Rehabilitation Expert Panel, responsible for developing clinical practice guidelines for physicians. He is a member of the American Association for Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation. Mr. Piscatella is president of the Institute for Fitness and Health.

Weird and Wonderful Christmas

NOVEMBER 2012

Curious and Crazy Customs and Coincidences from Around the World

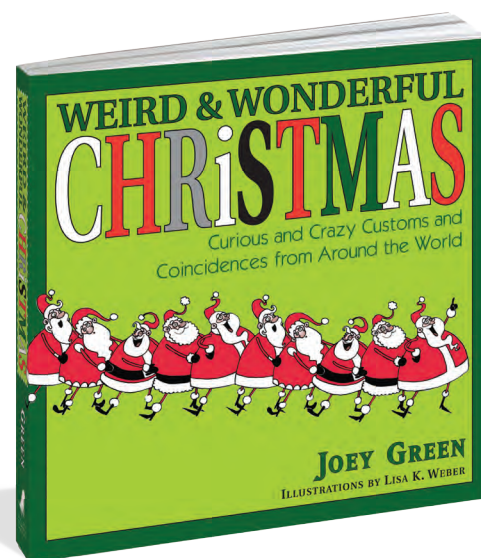

Joey Green, Illustrations by Lisa K. Weber

In Weird and Wonderful Christmas, Joey Green has unearthed stockingfuls of juicy holiday curiosities for an offbeat look at a heartfelt tradition—and a one-size-fits-all Christmas present no one will ever return!

Ah, the delights of Christmas. Holiday carolers, beautifully wrapped packages, twinkling lights, and...a feast of caterpillars fried in oil?! Welcome to Weird and Wonderful Christmas, a journey off the beaten path to the bizarre side of the world's most beloved holiday, where for every Christmas sugarplum there is a plate of lutefisk (that's cod soaked in lye, a Christmas favorite in Norway).

December 25th has become so much more—and less—than a sacred religious celebration. It is a time to be joyously selfless and a time to indulge in an orgy of consumerism; a time for sober reflection and a time to lift a few too many glasses of eggnog and wake up facedown under the office conference table. And, apparently, if you are Werner Erhard, a time to send out 62,824 personal greeting cards. Or for the 5,000 citizens of Porto, Portugal, it's a time to dress up as Santa Claus and parade through the town. Austrian children leave Father Christmas a glass of beer instead of milk and cookies, and in the closed-off streets of Caracas, Venezuela, worshippers roller-skate to church. Weird and Wonderful Christmas covers every wacky, wonderful, little-known Christmas tradition from every corner of the world.

Joey Green is the author of more than 40 books, including How They Met, Cleaning Magic, Amazing Pet Cures, and The Mad Scientist Handbook. A native of Miami, Florida, he is a former contributing editor at National Lampoon and a former advertising copywriter at J. Walter Thompson. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife and two daughters.
