

The Unicorn Came to Dinner Activity Kit!

DRAW A UNICORN SELF-PORTRAIT!

What would you look like as a unicorn? Would you have a long tail or a shiny horn?
Strong legs and hooves? Draw your self-portrait below!

The Unicorn Came to Dinner by Lauren DeStefano; illustrated by Gaia Cornwall

Roaring Brook Press | An imprint of Macmillan Children's Publishing Group

HELP THE UNICORN FIND HER WAY HOME!

The unicorn needs to go home for dinner after school. Can you lead her to her parents?

The Unicorn Came to Dinner by Lauren DeStefano; illustrated by Gaia Cornwall

Roaring Brook Press | An imprint of Macmillan Children's Publishing Group

THE UNICORN IS FEELING SCRAMBLED UP!

Can you unscramble all of the feelings words below?

PHYPA _____

LACM _____

RYGAN _____

ESPLYE _____

DSA _____

DXICTEE _____

SERONVU _____

The Unicorn Came to Dinner by Lauren DeStefano; illustrated by Gaia Cornwall

Roaring Brook Press | An imprint of Macmillan Children's Publishing Group

nervous
excited sad sleepy angry calm
happy

CAN YOU SPOT THE DIFFERENCES?

Look closely at the pictures below. Can you find all 5 five differences between them?

The Unicorn Came to Dinner by Lauren DeStefano; illustrated by Gaia Cornwall

Roaring Brook Press | An imprint of Macmillan Children's Publishing Group

1. No salad bowl
2. Unicorn not eating a carrot
3. Less sparkles
4. Shirt is blue
5. No unicorn horn

FEELING LIKE A UNICORN

Unicorns can feel all kinds of emotions and that's okay! In the circles below, draw a picture of what would make you feel happy, sad, nervous, and angry. Then, talk about how you can deal with those feelings!

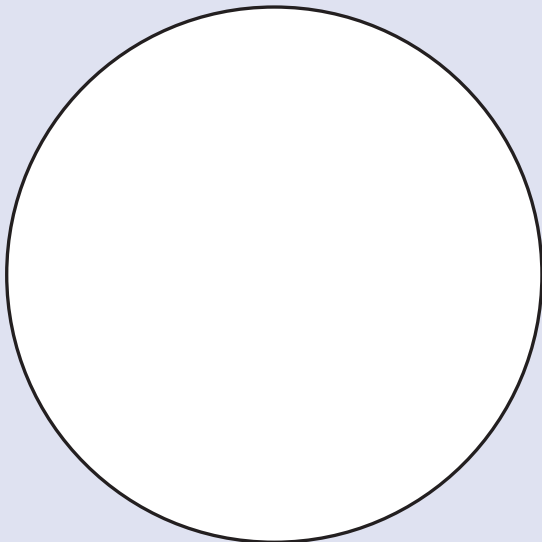

HAPPY

SAD

NERVOUS

ANGRY

Always remember that you can reach out to a friend or an adult with the BIG feelings that trouble you!

The Unicorn Came to Dinner by Lauren DeStefano; illustrated by Gaia Cornwall

Roaring Brook Press | An imprint of Macmillan Children's Publishing Group

