

Today is the day
a new adventure unfolds

as we set out to explore the many wonders the world holds.

Wherever you are
there's so much to take in,
and we know curiosity
is the way to begin.

Some step outside
and see only ground and sky.
But when we look extra close,
we see a grand parade marching by.

Some watch the rain
and see a long, dreary day.

But when we step outside,
we see magic puddles for play.

Some reach the ocean
and see only miles of sea.
But when we look a little deeper,
we see a spectacular city.

So, by now you can probably see . . .
there's always more to look for
in this great big world of possibility.

We may not all notice
the same things from the start.

But together we see that wonder lives in everyone's heart.

See how beautiful
the world can be when we share what we find?

We've learned from
one another and now
it's time to shine.
