

“A riveting wilderness suspense novel by a novelist at the height of her powers.”

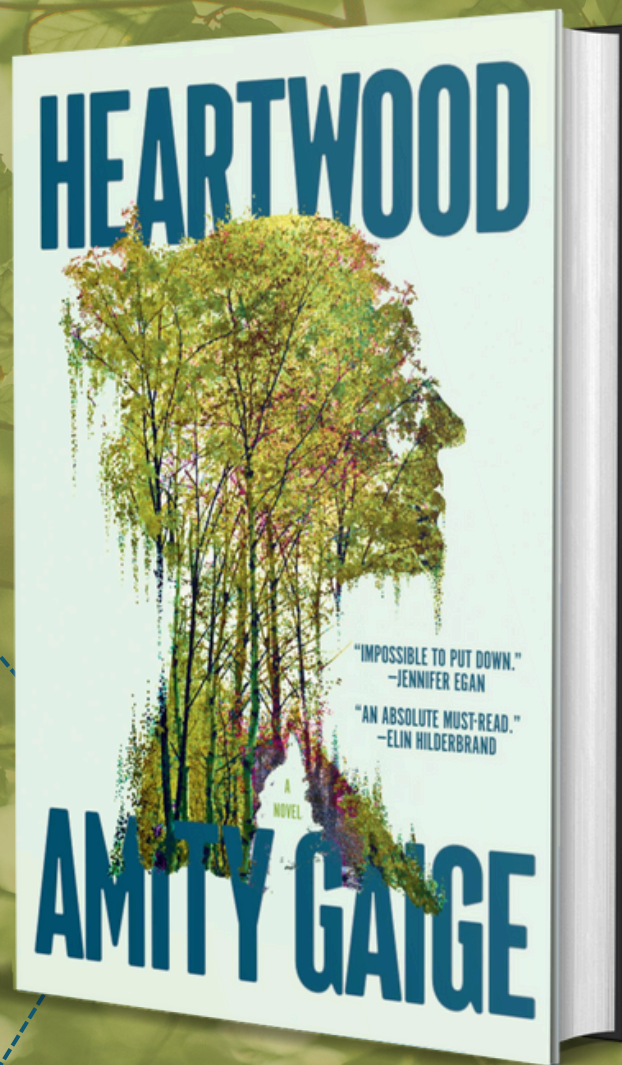

—Jennifer Egan, Pulitzer Prize-winning author of The Candy House

A haunting mystery set against the Maine wilds

Thrilling drama unfolds during a search for a missing person

A novel about what lurks in the shadows and the light of hope

Shocking twists and fascinating questions of family love and human connection