Angela Harding trained in Fine Art at Leicester Polytechnic and went on to specialise in printmaking at Nottingham Trent University. She now lives in the small county of Rutland, and works out of the studio at the bottom of her garden in the village of Wing.

Angela has worked on the covers for a number of books: she created the image for the now-iconic cover of The Salt Path, her children's book for the RSPB, Birds, was longlisted for the Klaus Flugge Prize and her work is regularly featured in magazines like Country Living, Countryfile and Gardens Illustrated.

Angela's unique and distinct style has become instantly recognisable to nature lovers and book lovers alike, gaining her a huge number of fans who flock to buy her merchandise, including calendars, cards, tea towels, tote bags and jigsaws.

A Year Unfolding

A printmaker's view

ANGELA HARDING

A beautifully illustrated guide to nature through the seasons

A beautifully illustrated guide to nature through the seasons by much-loved printmaker Angela Harding.

This stunning work, the first book that is solely dedicated to Angela's art, is a celebration of her beautiful prints, and a glimpse into her detailed and meticulous process.

A Year Unfolding is a journey through Angela's year in nature watching the seasons unfold in front of her from her studio in Rutland and the places she visits throughout the country, and it gives the reader detail into how nature transforms and evolves over the course of the year.

A Year Unfolding also tells the stories behind some of Angela's most popular images, giving context to her celebrated work, as well as new art created specifically for the book.

Full of beautiful images and evocative prose, this book is a celebration of the British countryside and perfect for nature lovers everywhere.
